Young footballer signs two-year contract with Premier League club

Freddie Craven

After a promising season as Leicester City's U12 goalkeeper, Oundle School pupil Freddie Craven (12) has recently signed a two-year contract with the club.

Freddie started with Lincoln City as their U11 goalkeeper, moving to Leicester City last year as their U12 goalkeeper on a one-year contract. He trains on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings at Leicester's training ground in Belvoir Drive, with matches on a Sunday.

"Playing for the team I support is a dream come true. I do my homework at lunchtimes in the library and catch up any lessons I miss as soon as I can in order to train," commented Freddie. "Missing the lunchtime football with my friends is difficult but I realise I have to make choices so that I can go to Leicester to train with my squad."

Highlights this year include a Premier League tournament in Ypres and playing Chelsea and Liverpool away. Freddie, who admires Leicester's goalkeeper Kasper Schmeichel, also enjoyed playing his last match of the season at The King Power Stadium, home to Leicester City, arriving by the players' entrance, using the first team changing rooms and playing on the pitch.

"We have improved over the season and played some great football. However, at the moment, it is all about our continued development. Only the first team needs to win," added Freddie.

Freddie's tutor and Deputy Housemaster, Mark Sanderson commented: "I have been continually impressed with both Freddie's determination and level of organisation. Juggling his extensive footballing commitments with the significant demands of his schoolwork is no mean feat and I cannot commend Freddie highly enough."

Funding pots up for grabs

East Northamptonshire Council has announced that its funding scheme for community projects has reopened.

Each district councillor has been allocated £1,000 per year for small community-based projects which are managed by parish/town councils, community groups, voluntary organisations and charities working in the district.

The programme supports community events, sports equipment and activities, environmental enhancements, local facility improvements, equipment for youth groups and projects that promote safer communities.

Since the scheme began in June 2011, communities have benefited from over £130,000 of grant funding to support their community-based projects including:

- Speed activated signs to improve road safety in Denford
- Trees and equipment for the Stanwick Pocket Park community orchard
- Refurbishment of toilet facilities at Thrapston Sports Club

- A community notice board for Newton Road, Rushden
- Damp proofing and redecoration of the King's Cliffe Underground youth centre
- Creation of a basketball and football area at Thurning Village Hall
- Security timers for residents in the Oundle area
- A PA system for Waterloo Drummers and Performing Arts group

Steven North, Leader of East Northamptonshire Council says: "We have a lot of can-do communities in this district who just need a bit of financial help to make their projects a reality. That's where councillors can help, with their Member Empowerment Fund. If you have a community project in mind that fits the criteria, have a chat with your local councillor to see if they can help."

Find out more about the Member Empowerment Fund, visit www.east-northamptonshire.gov.uk/mef or speak to your local district councillor, details can be found at www.east-northamptonshire.gov.uk/councillors

Genealogy jottings

Hello all. Last time, I mentioned photographs and these can be an absolute goldmine for getting people to talk about past relatives.

Do you remember those small cardboard suitcases that used to be popular back in the 1940s? Well, one day, my father presented me with one that had been knocking about in his garage saying, "I wonder if any of this would help." Help? It was wonderful, an Aladdin's cave!

I sat him down and we went through it together, as I did not know who half the people were. There were photographs of my great grandparents in there, which I had never seen before. My great grandfather died five years before I was born and my great grandmother four years, so I never knew them. There was also a newspaper cutting in there of the funeral of another great grandmother, which listed all of the people who attended as well as from whom all of the floral tributes were sent. This sent me off on another trail of finding out about my grandmother's siblings and their spouses.

The thing to remember about this time (1936) is that married women were often referred to by their husband's initials, so Mary Smith, who was married to George, would be referred to as Mrs G Smith and not Mrs M Smith, as is common nowadays.

Well, you have been reading my random jottings for a few weeks now but is there anything specific that you would like me to cover? You can contact me via the Nene Valley News (news@nenevalleynews.co.uk) or by visiting my family history forum at <http://www.genealogy-specialists.com/> and clicking on the contact button at the bottom of the page. Of course, not everyone is linked up to the internet so letters are also very welcome. Please write to me c/o Nene Valley News, 9 Checkpoint Court, Sadler Road, Lincoln. LN6 3PW.

TREE PRESERVATION

Many Oundle residents will be aware that a large limb fell from the beech tree in front of Oundle School's SciTec building a couple of weeks ago. The limb was rotten and we had a professional survey carried out on the tree as a result. The survey found that the tree was in a serious state of decay and posed a potentially serious risk to passers-by. Following discussions with the ENC Tree Officer the decision was taken to fell the tree and replace it with three new trees.

It is always sad to remove a tree and this beech tree was particularly old and impressive. However, it had come to the end of its natural life and, when it was cut down, it was found that the extent of decay was indeed even more advanced than expected. The risk of a large limb, or the tree itself, falling onto a person on the footpath was a very real one and the consequence of such an incident would be significant. It is particularly unfortunate as the new entrance to the SciTec campus was carefully designed around this tree, with every effort made to protect it for the future.

The School benefits from having many trees of different varieties on its land and these help to enhance the surroundings that we live and work in. We care greatly about this environment and are doing our best to manage the large number of trees on the School estate. Although some trees may be lost to development and others to disease, we are constantly planting new trees. In the last twelve months, over 2,000 trees have been planted by the School and, whilst the three new trees planted for this particularly fine and very old beech tree can't actually replace it, they will at least provide compensation for its sad loss.

Richard Tremellen
Deputy Bursar (Estates), Oundle School

Social media campaign proves a hit for school librarian

Prince William School, Oundle, Librarian Elaine Galer has launched a successful Twitter appeal for school reading books.

In September, the school will move from three to two tier and will take pupils from Years 7 and 8. In a campaign to improve literacy levels, 500 books are needed to provide every new student with a reading book for use in class tutor sessions.

Elaine decided to tweet an appeal to authors, publishers and booksellers asking them to donate a book to the school.

The hashtag #1book was read 71,426 times in the first week of posting. Bestselling author Neil Gaiman retweeted the post and to date 330 books have been sent from places as far as California, Texas, New York and all over the UK. Authors such as R.L. Stine (Goosebumps) and Darren Shan have sent signed copies of their books.

Elaine has been overwhelmed with the support and generosity of those who have responded to her drive to bring the library into the classroom. One of the donations has arrived all the way from Peterborough – in the United States.

“Toad Stool bookstore in New Hampshire sent us their bestselling book for middle school aged pupils,” Elaine explained, “and promised to look the school up if they were ever near our UK Peterborough.”

Books are still arriving daily at the school, and it's hoped the 500 target will soon be reached.

If anyone is interested in donating to the appeal, please address your book to Elaine Galer, Librarian, Prince William School, Herne Road, Oundle, Peterborough PE8 4BS.

Springfield Garden blossoms

A new neighbourhood garden is springing up at the junction of Rock Road and Springfield Road in Oundle.

Members of the Springfield Garden steering committee negotiated the land from the owners Spire Homes, who also contributed a grant of £2,000 to assist with the development of the garden.

Ownership of the plot was transferred to Oundle Town Council, which has permitted the creation of the garden by residents of, and hopes it will 'be of great benefit to the community'.

The plan was to make a small oasis, boasting a profusion of flowers, shrubs, and a selection of fruit trees including plum, pear, apple and cherry.

The group hopes that more residents will be encouraged to initiate similar projects throughout Oundle.

As well as OTC and Spire Homes, support and advice has also been provided by Transition Oundle, landscape artist Charles Clay, who provided the plans, landscape gardener Garry Kruger, who carried out the ground work and WREN who provided a further grant.

Interested in becoming part of the Neighbourhood Garden Group? Email Dorrie Baxter: baxterbrunston@aol.com

The garden will be officially launched on Sunday 12th July 2-6pm as part of the Oundle Open Gardens Day.

Be a local scooperhero!

East Northamptonshire Council is supporting the Dogs Trust and Keep Britain Tidy in their latest dog fouling campaign, which reminds owners to pick up after their pooch.

The UK's largest dog welfare charity, the Dogs Trust, and Keep Britain Tidy, who work to keep the country clean, have launched the Big Scoop campaign.

The Big Scoop (until 21st June) is a reminder that every dog owner needs to 'bag it and bin it.'

Together, the groups are encouraging people across East Northants to be a 'scooperhero' with their dogs. It's really easy, just follow these four easy steps:

1. BRING BAGS with you before you set off on your walk
2. BAG THE MESS if your dog has fouled, but be careful to not get any on your hands
3. BIN THE BAG in any public bin
4. CLEAN YOUR HANDS using water or hand sanitizer

Steven North, Leader of East Northamptonshire Council, said: "While the vast majority of dog owners are responsible and pick up after their pets, a small minority refuse to do the right thing. This means that our pavements and parks can be scattered with dog mess, which is offensive and potentially dangerous. It is unpleasant to see it lying around and it's even more unpleasant to step in! I'm pleased to support this campaign to ensure this mess ends up safely in the bin."

The East Northamptonshire Council Dog Warden patrols the district five days a week and will fine any member of the canine community who is seen not picking up after their pooch.

New school nature and sensory garden opens

Friday 5th June was a special day for children at Tennyson Road Infant School in Rushden.

What was once part of a drab car park within the school grounds has now been transformed into a nature and sensory garden which was funded by the National Lottery.

The project itself has taken five months to complete, with teacher Mrs Amanda Brown at the helm and much support from staff, governors, parents and children who all came together to develop, build and plant in the garden.

The garden itself will enable children to support their learning, development and knowledge and teach them how to care and look after their environment and living things.

On a fabulously sunny day the school choir started proceedings by performing their well-rehearsed songs. The Mayor of Rushden, Councillor Kaye Rawlins, then cut the ribbon to officially open the school's new garden for all to enjoy. A fun time was had by all that attended.

Donations for the garden were gratefully received from Spendlove Contracting and www.gardenparadise.net.

Magic, music and laughter in Oundle

What's not to enjoy at the Oundle International Festival?

The countdown to the Oundle International Festival has started. The festivities commence on Friday 10th July with live outdoor family theatre, The Sorcerer's Apprentice, including amazing magic tricks and illusions in Barnwell Country Park.

The festival finishes on Saturday 18th July with The Party at The Wharf, a great opportunity to enjoy a night out with a picnic and friends, with a fantastic array of live bands and an incredible laser show for the grand finale.

Tickets for all 23 events are selling quickly with some of the annual favourites looking like they'll sell out!

This summer's programme is so varied musically that there really is something for everyone, from the historic with the Tudor Partbooks, to the mystical Gaelic and bluegrass of The Shee, or the sultry Tango with The Deco Ensemble.

The Nene will be 'alive with the sound of music' on Sunday 12th July when you can experience an evening of feelgood fun with friends at the Sing-a-long-a Sound Of Music on its 50th anniversary tour (dressing up is optional for this one!).

And, by popular demand, this year the festival is featuring stand-up comedy with 'Sex...with Pete Searles' at The Stahl Theatre.

The performances are not limited to the evenings either, with a lunchtime recital programmed every day from 13th-18th July in local venues: St Peter's Church, Oundle School Chapel and All Saints Church Fotheringhay. Why not take in lunch in town or a picnic in one of the many beautiful spots around Oundle before unwinding at one of these recitals?

The Food Festival will be back on the final Saturday of the Festival with such a selection of delicious artisan stalls that you'll be able to stock up for the Party at The Wharf that evening.

Please visit www.oundlefestival.org.uk to view further information about all the performers, concerts, Open Gardens, Oundle Food Festival and Party at The Wharf. You can even listen to some samples on the festival website, so that you can 'try before you buy'.

You can be talked through the programme in person at the festival office at 4 New Street, Oundle (opposite The Talbot Hotel).

You can also buy tickets for Oundle Cinema, the Oundle Literature Festival and some Stahl Theatre events to name but a few at The Box Office. Follow the festival on Facebook and Twitter at @OundleMusic to keep up to date with what's on and join in any discussions or enter any of the competitions.

Your ABC guide to driving safely

Driving tips supplied by your local Advanced Motorists Group.

Acceleration Sense – Drive away immediately when starting from cold, idling to heat the engine wastes fuel and can cause rapid engine wear. Operate the accelerator smoothly. Good planning means you can release the accelerator long before reaching a hazard, making the drive smooth, safer and more economical.

Brakes – should be applied gently and progressively to give the smoothest drive. Apply the brakes lightly and gradually increase the pressure. As your speed comes off, gradually release the pressure to avoid an abrupt stop.

Changing Lanes – Avoid changing lanes constantly. If you see traffic ahead increasing, ease off the accelerator and avoid tailgating. The more often you change lanes the more chances of an accident occurring. Always check mirrors to see if it is safe to change lanes and signal if it will benefit anyone.

Seafood at its best

Loch Fyne

Venturing to the most northern part of the district, I was invited to Loch Fyne in Elton. For those of you who have not been to Elton before, the village is picturesque with traditional stone built cottages.

Elton Hall and Gardens dominates the village, and has been owned by the Proby family for over 350 years. The Hall sits on an estate which is over 3,800 acres and includes woodland, commercial property, residential property and much more. The Old Dairy Barn, which is on the outskirts of the village is home to the Loch Fyne restaurant, which serves a fantastic array of seafood and shellfish, most of which comes from Loch Fyne on the West Coast of Scotland.

Loch Fyne Elton has been in its current location for twenty-four years, and has transformed Pan fried chilli and garlic prawns (right) and Lobster Spaghetti (below) what was the Old Dairy Barn in to a stylish and comfortable restaurant. Making the most of the original features, including the stone work over the windows and majestic beams which run the length of the restaurant, it nevertheless has a contemporary feel. The courtyard to the rear has recently had a make-over and for those of you who are planning a visit during the summer months I would highly recommend sitting outside and making the most of the views.

Although we visited on the warmest day of the year, we opted to sit inside and indulge ourselves in one of the booths. My guest Lisa and I had worked up an appetite on our way to the restaurant and were excited to arrive and see what was on offer.

When we arrived we were shown to our seats and offered the a la carte menu, set menu and the day's specials to choose from. I always get excited when fish is used with chilli and the two starters that immediately caught my attention were the squid tempura with chilli jam and the pan fried chilli and garlic king prawns.

After much procrastination, I finally decided on the prawns and was so glad I had chosen them once they arrived. The heat was perfect, and the prawns were juicy and tender, and very large. They were cooked beautifully, piping hot both in temperature and heat from the chillies.

Lisa, being Scottish, didn't find her decision as hard to make once she saw haggis and seared Scottish scallops with a lemon beurre blanc and caramelised pear listed. I was lucky enough to try the scallops and they melted in my mouth, they were absolutely delicious. Lisa was extremely happy with her choice too. I understand haggis is quite a delicacy north of the border, and not always easy to recreate down south. But the Loch Fyne offering was cooked beautifully.

We didn't have long to wait for our mains to arrive after the starters had been cleared. I opted for the salmon fillet from the specials menu which was served in a Provencal sauce with new potatoes. I have to admit salmon is probably my favourite dish, and I have been to plenty of restaurants that aren't able to cook it properly, so I was very impressed with what was served.

The Courtyard

As salmon should be, it was flaky, and the chef had managed to get a lovely crust to the skin which worked really well. My only issue with this dish was the potatoes. I felt the new potatoes could have done with some seasoning to enhance them. That being said, the dish didn't really need them and it certainly wouldn't put me off having it again.

Lisa chose the lobster spaghetti, which is as the title describes. The lobster was rich and full of flavour, and the whole dish was cooked perfectly. The presentation had clearly been thought out carefully as well. Making a pasta dish look appealing can be a challenge but by leaving the shell of the lobster on the plate they made it look much more appealing.

One thing we noted throughout our meal was the portion sizes. Both our starter and main course were just right. They were filling, but not to the point where you feel too full. They also left room for us to try a dessert each. There are a few staples which I always enjoy including crème brulee and any dessert with containing chocolate.

As Lisa chose the crème brulee I opted for the Chocolate Ashet, which consisted of hazelnut brownie, chocolate parfait, salted caramel ice cream and hot chocolate. To say this was indulgent would be an understatement. The brownie was warm and melted in my mouth and the salted caramel ice cream was decadent. I was in chocolate heaven by the end of it.

The crème brulee was also a hit with Lisa, after she managed to make the first crack of the sugar. We finished our desserts off with a coffee before heading home.

This was my first experience of a Loch Fyne restaurant, and I must admit I had not heard of the chain before, but I will be visiting again. Our experience from start to finish was excellent.

Small Wonders rated 'Outstanding' after Ofsted inspection

Since First For Childcare Ltd acquired Small Wonders Day Nursery & Out of School Club in 2013 we had not had an Ofsted inspection. The setting at that point was rated as 'Good' by Ofsted.

Unlike schools which get prior warning, the Early Years settings in the UK do not receive any notice at all. I personally support this as it means that they are reviewing a 'normal' day.

We have an amazing team at Small Wonders, Oundle, and when the day of the inspection came, this was led by Juliet Varey, who is in charge of quality and standards for the Group, Helen Selby and Chelsea Scott. They were very capably supported by the whole team.

I am very proud to say that the hard work paid off and the team were awarded 'Outstanding' in all areas by the Inspector. This was very much a team effort and the whole team performed to their normal amazing standard. The children are obviously a major part of the inspection too and they were all, as always, wonderful on the day!

<http://reports.ofsted.gov.uk/index.php?q=filedownloading/&id=2475235&type=1&refer=0>

This means that all nurseries at the first Ofsted inspection after acquisition have achieved 'Outstanding' status.

I am also pleased to say that we have our planning permission through for the outdoor area, after lots of negotiating. We worked with a consultant who responded to all objections that were sent in. We are very excited as we are now almost doubling the size of the outdoor area and replacing all of the equipment and also the fencing.

Busy start to year for maritime volunteers

This year has been a busy one year so far for the Rushden branch of the Maritime Volunteer Service, the national organisation's only inland unit.

Since February it has been carefully navigating and mapping the River Nene from Wellingborough to Thrapston, by foot, bicycle and canoe. Its water rescue training continues and the service has recently become a full volunteer member of the Northamptonshire Emergency Response Corp (NERC).

Founding head of unit Maurice Weight has now stepped down from command in order to concentrate on major projects and has passed the baton of command to the previous unit second in command, Volunteer Officer Andy Smith.

In early May the unit enjoyed a day in London calling in at the Royal Naval Reserves Headquarters at HMS President, followed by a River Thames trip on a fast patrol boat to the Royal Naval College and Maritime Museum/Royal Observatory in Greenwich.

Members of the unit have recently returned from Ypres in Belgium after joining in the 100km annual walking event and after parading and laying a wreath at the Menin Gate ceremony. Leading Volunteer Sarah Smith was chosen to lay the MVS wreath in commemoration of all those who fell in the Great War of 1914-1918.

June has also seen the volunteers undertaking power boat training and sailing at the Priory Sailing Club in Bedford and rope work and water rescue practice on and around the River Nene.

If you are over 18 and interested in things nautical and/or inland water based and would like to join a group of like minded individuals contact the Rushden Maritime Volunteer Service by email at mvsrushden@hotmail.com You can find Rushden MVS on Facebook, and more details about the Maritime Volunteer Service can be found at www.mvs.org.uk

A feast of activities planned for Oundle Food Festival 2015

Friday 10th to Saturday 18th July

This year the Oundle Food Festival has joined with the Oundle International Festival and The Fringe Festival to bring you a day not to be missed.

The Street Market on Saturday 18th July is the centrepiece of the Food Festival, when around 70 stalls will provide an amazing diversity of produce and producers. One of the most popular dates in regional gastronomes' diaries, the Street Market gathers together those who grow, produce and sell some of the country's finest foods. Stalls, street food as well as street theatre performances will keep your feet tapping and add to the carnival atmosphere.

The line-up from The Fringe will be performing during the day, including: Five String Thing, English traditional music and song; a feast of Appalachian dance from Tap and Sync, Oundle; Cricket on the Hearth, Harrogate; Kickstart, Warwick; West Deeping English Cloggers; Rockingham Rapper and Step dancers; Paul Eady Band, traditional English and French song and music.

And in the evening it's the turn of the Oundle International Festival to entertain you at their Party at the Wharf.

With a fantastic line-up of bands this is the place to picnic (make sure you've bought it at the Street Market!) and dance the night away with the Los Palmas 6, who are probably the best and most accurate Madness Tribute band in the world, 'JACK' with their very special blend of R&B and local Oundle rock, pop and indie band Disarray.

The whole day will be rounded off in style with a spectacular laser show!

Festival sponsors Aga Peterborough will be running cookery demonstrations during the Festival week and Brewbabu's Tea Master will be coming to Oundle to talk about the various different teas and tastes.

There will be some very special Food Festival menus to sample, and to celebrate Oundle International Festival a number of Oundle Restaurants will be open for pre-concert dinners.

For children Barnwell Park will once again be putting on its very popular Teddy Bear's Picnic on Wednesday 15th July! Bring your teddy and join them for a Teddy Bear's Picnic with lots of fun and games including teddy bear den building, craft activities and storytelling.

See the website for full details www.oundlefoodfestival.co.uk

Ringstead Village Social Club to host Jay Harrison fundraising weekend

Friday 3rd to Sunday 5th July

In April, Jay Harrison, a talented 18-year-old resident of Ringstead, passed away from Non-Hodgkins Lymphoma.

During the last six months of his life Jay was always positive about his future and said that when he was better he was determined to organise a weekend of events at Ringstead Village Social Club to raise much needed funds for CLIC Sargent for children with cancer and the Teenage Cancer Trust charities.

Both of these charities need funds in order to provide those children, who are in hospital, and their families with financial support. They help to fund specialist staff in specific hospitals where children with cancer are being treated. Ward 27 at Leicester Royal Infirmary was Jay's home for many months.

Up to seven young people a day are diagnosed with cancer. Visit these links for more information about the charities: www.clicsargent.org.uk and www.teenagecancertrust.org

Jay's wish to organise a fundraising event has now been taken up by his family and members of the Social Club. They have organised a full programme of events over the 3rd-5th July weekend.

Friday starts off at 7.30pm with a Family Race Night. Entry is just £1 and the organisers are encouraging racegoers to fill in a race sheet (£2 per horse) at their place of work and then be there on the night to cheer on their horse/s. Winning horse owners get £10.

There will also be a barbecue and a large raffle will be drawn.

From 8pm on Saturday the Club will host a 'J' Theme Fancy Dress Night, so put your thinking cap on and see which 'J' character you could go as? There will be a Hog Roast and a Grand Auction of Promises which include one week at a Spanish villa close to Malaga airport, a luxury painting class for up to 10 people, a two course Indian meal for six, handyman for a day to do all those little jobs around your home, a basket full of ironing, get your favourite photo cross-stitched plus many more.

To round the weekend off, on Sunday from noon families can do the 'Jaywalk', a leisurely stroll around the village solving and picking up clues as you go – including separate clues for the kiddies. This is a walk for which you can get yourself sponsored so pick up a form from the Club. £2 per entry form, prizes for winners.

The afternoon will also see a variety of fun activities at the Club, with a Table Top Sale, various stalls, Bouncy Castle, Tombola, Cake Stall and barbecue, along with singers on the patio.

Finishing off the weekend at 5pm will be a 50/50 Fun Cash Bingo with a difference and at 6pm a Giant Raffle at which the total amount raised over the event will be announced.

Already £360 has been pledged. It is hoped a target of £5,000 will be reached so come along to these events and help us to raise this amount.

If you would like to support this event in any way either by donating prizes, donating and/or bidding for promises, booking a stall, pre-buying or sponsoring a horse and purchasing entry tickets please contact by email harrison.07@btinternet.com

Thrapston Charter Fair ahead

The Thrapston Charter Fair will be held on Saturday 27th June in Thrapston town centre.

The parade will be led by the Northampton Pipe Band and commences at The Bridge Hotel at 1.50pm.

The Fair will be opened by the President of the Charter Fair committee, Mr Bryn Wright at 2pm, in Market Square.

There will be plenty for visitors to see including stalls selling a multitude of products, and many local charities will be raising money for good causes.

McQueen Cars will be on display again. There will also be live music throughout the day including 32/20 who will be playing for most of the afternoon, as well as performances from Thrapston Town Band, the Northampton Pipe Band and the winners of Thrapston's Got Talent.

The theme this year is 'Children's TV and Film, past and present', and there will be a competition for the attendee in the best fancy dress. The area outside the library will be a free play area with lots for children to do, including a Punch and Judy Show, and of course the Funfair will be open for all.

There will also be entertainment in the Plaza, so why not pop in, even if it's only to take the weight off your feet.

French Sauce Tomat / French tomato sauce

By José Ferdi Tavares – ferdis.kitchen@gmail.com

This is the fourth of five Southern European tomato sauce recipes. Each with its subtle difference in taste. You can use this on its own or as a base for other recipes. It's a great time-saver if prepared in bulk. You can freeze suitable-sized portions for later use and it makes for a quick and easy start to preparing a delicious meal. Halve or double the recipe as desired.

Steam or boil a variety of vegetables such as broccoli, Brussels sprouts, cauliflower, green beans, broad beans, mange tout etc until almost cooked. Add to the sauce and warm up until the vegetables are tender. Sprinkle with a little Pecorino or Parmesan cheese, chopped flat leaf parsley and a drizzle of extra virgin olive oil for a healthy and tasty vegetable dish.

INGREDIENTS

- 4 whole peeled plum tomatoes, (400g can – San Marzano are best)
- 1 tbsp butter
- 1tsp tomato paste
- 2 onions, diced
- 2 carrots, diced
- 2 celery sticks, diced
- 4 cloves garlic, finely chopped
- 100g smoked lardons or smoked streaky bacon, diced
- 4 cups chicken stock
- ¼ cup olive oil
- 2 tbsp all-purpose flour
- 1 tsp sugar
- ½ tsp coarse sea salt
- ½ tsp black pepper

- 2 tbsp fresh rosemary, finely chopped
- 2 tbsp fresh thyme, finely chopped
- 1 tbsp sage leaves, finely chopped
- 2 fresh bay leaf, bruised
- 4 tbsp fresh flat leaf parsley, finely chopped

METHOD

- 1) Add the butter and olive oil to a large saucepan on medium heat. Sauté the bacon for 3–4 minutes until the fat is rendered. Add the onions, carrots, celery and garlic and sauté for 3 minutes or until onions are soft.
- 2) Add the flour and stir in until well incorporated. Continue on medium heat, stirring, until the flour is lightly browned.
- 3) Add the rest of the ingredients and stir well to combine. Increase the heat and bring to the boil whilst stirring.
- 4) Reduce the heat and simmer on a medium-low heat, semi-covered with the lid, for 1 ½ hours. Stir every 20 minutes or so. Break up the tomatoes whilst stirring. If the sauce thickens too much, add a little stock or water and continue cooking. Remove from heat and taste for seasoning. Adjust with salt, pepper or a pinch of sugar if necessary. Allow to cool. Remove bay leaves.

Do you have a brave teddy bear?

You may recall the song about teddy bears having a picnic in the woods but today's teddy bears are much more daring.

At this year's Thrapston Charter Fair, teddy bears will have the opportunity to experience a zip wire ride from the window of St James' Church tower down into the churchyard.

So take your teddy bear along to this year's Charter Fair on Saturday 27th June. Take him/her into St James' Church and up to the launch platform in the tower. Register your teddy and leave him/her in the safe hands of the zip wire staff while you go back downstairs to enjoy the other activities in and around the church.

When it is the turn of your teddy, your name will be called and you will then see your teddy having a fun ride on the St James' Tower Teddy Zip Wire.

Your teddy will also receive a certificate of bravery.

Rides cost £1 per bear. Registration begins at 2.20pm and rides will start at 2.30pm. All proceeds will go to the St James bell fund. Photos and videos of bears are permitted.

All zip wire staff have been trained to follow the Teddy Zip Wire Health and Safety Rules:

There is no age restriction on bears.

All bears must agree to wear a safety harness and name tag.

All bears must follow the instructions of the zip wire staff.

Where possible all bears must ride the zip wire individually.

Tiny baby bears that are too small to wear their own harness will be allowed to ride inside the harness of a trained adult bear. (Trained adult bears will be available for this purpose).

Sorry but extra tall bears, taller than 60cm, (2ft) will not be allowed to ride at all due to teddy harness safety restrictions.

Thrapston Farmers' Market donates funds to local causes

Launched in September 2014, Thrapston Farmers' Market has gone from strength to strength and has recently been busy donating proceeds to worthy local causes and projects in Thrapston – totalling £2,250 so far.

The market was set up and is managed by a voluntary team of local women whose objectives are simple: celebrate locally farmed products, put Thrapston on the map as a shopping destination, and donate the proceeds to the town.

In 2015 Thrapston Farmers' Market has so far donated £500 to the Bridge of Grace Food Bank at Thrapston Baptist Church, £250 towards renovating a dilapidated wall along High Street and £1,500 is being pledged to pay for a new community noticeboard in the town centre. The donations will keep coming as the market grows.

June Morton, who runs Bridge of Grace, was presented with the £500 cheque at the market on 6th June and says: "We are delighted with this donation, which will go a long way to help us provide a helping hand to Thrapston families who are going through challenging times."

Zoey Boon, Secretary of Thrapston Farmers' Market committee says: "Our team are keen to give back to a very local charity which relates to our market, and the Bridge of Grace is such a worthy recipient. None of us know when we may need that helping hand – one month we might be shopping on the Farmers' Market, and the next we may be in need of what Bridge of Grace has to offer, to keep our family fed."

Thrapston is a traditional market town long associated with farming thanks to its rural location and its 145-year-old cattle market, which still takes place in the town every week.

Charlotte Croser, Chair of Thrapston Farmers' Market says: "Almost every pound which we receive from stallholder rents is ploughed back into improving facilities in our community and town centre, with just a modest, necessary amount used for administering and promoting the market. Thrapston Farmers' Market is a market run by the community and for the benefit of the community, through and through."

An active traders' group in the town, Thrapston Independents Group, is embarking on a project to beautify the town centre and entrances to the town by adding new planters, upgrading and increasing the amount of seating, and providing new community and heritage noticeboards. A very generous £1500 donation to the project from the Farmers' Market will pay for a brand new noticeboard which will offer local groups and charities a prominent, central place to promote events and fundraisers in Thrapston. Repairs to an unsightly wall close to the market has also been replaced thanks in part to the market funds donated.

Thrapston Farmers Market now boasts over 20 stalls, which attend monthly when in season, filling the length of High Street on the first Saturday of each month. The market has brought a real buzz to Thrapston and is fast becoming an integral part of the monthly calendar in the community.

Shoppers are enjoying the array of products on offer from fresh game, poultry and meat to locally made meat pies and sausages for every taste and dietary requirement. Manor Farm brings a wonderful selection of fresh vegetables and fruit grown on its farm in Lincolnshire, many of which are hard to find in the supermarket and all having been farmed by the stallholder.

Thrapston Farmers' Market also boasts locally brewed beers from Brigstock and Rushden, and Fleurfields, a vineyard based in Brixworth, attends with its Northamptonshire wines. Find some unusual preserves, sauces and accompaniments, locally baked breads, cakes and treats from a range of stallholders. For those with special dietary requirements, Thrapston Farmers' Market has an all-gluten-free cakes and bakes stall, Carol's Bakes, plus Browns' Sausages which sells a range of gluten, dairy and meat free and vegan sausages. Eating during the market is popular too, with The Little Soup Company serving homemade soups

(during autumn and winter months), and all year round Mytton Meats cooks up its home reared and made sausages and burgers.

Regulated by FARMA, the industry regulating body, Thrapston Farmers' Market prides itself on only taking on stallholders which offer truly local products, made or grown by the stallholder and using locally sourced ingredients. The market organisers work hard to nurture the welcoming, sociable atmosphere at each market.

Lindsey Burch, Treasurer of the market committee says "Our stallholders are very positive about Thrapston Farmers' Market and for some it has already become one of their busiest. We have a queue of stalls wanting to join us. Shoppers are telling us that they look forward to the market each month, and some have made it a monthly social get-together with family and friends."

Chess corner

by Derrick Sims

I recently went to London's West End to watch the Mousetrap at St Martin's Theatre. The venue is just up the road from the British Museum, where I took the opportunity to view the displays relating to medieval Europe. Chess was a very popular game during that period and the pieces are recognisable today.

Modern chess pieces have lost some of the detail of old; an example is the Knight, whereby on a modern chess set it's represented by a horse's head shape. A medieval set would have shown a Knight riding a horse; this makes it much clearer why a Knight is so called.

In the middle ages chess was one of the accomplishments a young noblewoman was expected to learn. At that time relationships between men and women were formalised, with chess being one of the few opportunities to socialise and flirt with each other. I hasten to add that such behaviour is not a feature at Rushden Chess Club and new members needn't worry that they will be exposed to flirting of any sort!

Chessboards at that time were of a substantial nature and there is a story that the future King John clashed with Fulke FitzWarin over a game of chess, striking FitzWarin over the head with a board leading to John receiving a foot in his stomach causing him to smash his head into a wall. It's reported that both players became 'all weak and fainted' – hardly surprising.

Fulke later rebelled against King John over his familial right to Whittington Castle and was declared an outlaw. King John was obviously not big into forgiving and forgetting. There are even reports of people being murdered with chessboards. They certainly took their chess seriously in those days. Chess is also recorded as being a game that laymen were allowed to play.

Like many players I was taught the game by my father and I assume that the game would have been taught and played similarly by previous Sims generations. I can imagine that my distant ancestor Simon, who was a servant in Rutland in 1377, may even have played the game against his master at that time.

Certainly chess pieces have been found that date from the 12th century so the game would have been widespread by the 14th century. A recent archaeological dig in Northampton found a 12th century, chess workshop with pieces manufactured from bones and antlers. This prompted one wag at Rushden Bowls Club to comment that he'd had to turn down a job at a chess factory because it was shift work and he couldn't do (K)nights – I rest my case your honour!

Chess is a game for people of all abilities, disabilities, and lifestyles. Rushden Chess Club loves welcoming new members, so do come along to a meeting if you're interested in playing chess in a very friendly environment – for details please call the Club Secretary on 07810 474969, or visit the club website <http://rushdenchessclub.com> and for the NCA (County Association) it's <http://www.norchess.lloydbunday.co.uk>.

East Northants Tennis

In the Ladies Division Corby A took a giant step in retaining their title with two impressive victories.

Against Ferrers & Rushden Karyn Slatter / Gee Farnsworth claimed a hard fought maximum, beating Val Horrell / Denise Sayer 6-3, 6-2 and Michelle Mainwaring / Joana Jones 7-5, 6-4. Carolyn Davis / Deb Briggs also defeated Horrell / Sayer but had to settle for a 6-3, 3-6 half with Mainwaring / Jones.

Next up was a visit to Oundle and the Corby quartet again produced a solid performance in gaining a 6-2 win. Slatter / Sam Chapman led the way, bagging a four-set haul with a 6-0, 7-6 win over Jo Porter / Camilla Sherwin and a 6-2, 6-1 victory against Janet Cracknell / Jane Cummins. Corrine Liobet / Deb Briggs scored a 6-0, 6-2 win against Cracknell / Cummins but found Oundle's Porter / Sherwin a much more difficult proposition and went down 6-1, 7-5.

Market Harborough's first ever foray into the East Northants League ended with a 6-2 win over Burton Latimer. Karen Westley / Katie Gillanders were in fine form beating Sue Hart /

Laura Cave 6-2, 6-4 and halving 4-6, 7-6 with Tina Cattle / Beth Ascott. Susan Roberts / Deb Bliss also chipped in with three sets defeating Cattle / Ascott 6-3, 7-6 and halving 2-6, 6-3 with Hart / Cave.

Thrapston A look to be Corby's main rivals as they secured their third win of the season by beating Oundle 7-1. Vanessa Woodhead / Rachel Wildman took all four sets while Lizzie Sloan / Kate Jones waded in with three. For Oundle, Jo Porter / Camilla Sherwin could feel a little unfortunate going down 7-5, 7-5 to Woodhead / Wildman before claiming a well deserved 7-5, 3-6 half against Sloan / Jones.
