In Brief

Jack & Jill Day Nursery manager retires

The Jack & Jill Day Nursery in Rushden will soon be saying goodbye to one of their beloved managers, Jayne Broadway, as she begins her retirement. Jayne has been at the nursery for 31 years. She began as a part-time nursery nurse and worked her way up to become a manager when the nursery was located at Grove Road, continuing in the role when it moved to Moor Road.

During her time at the nursery, Jayne has always been committed and highly motivated, showing so much care toward the staff, the children and all the families she has met.

Tanya Sidorowska-Jenkinson, the current manager, said: "Jayne leaving the nursery is going to be difficult for anyone that has known her... we have some rather big shoes to fill."

Jayne has influenced the lives of hundreds of children and parents who still have fond memories of her and the nursery. All the current staff wish Jayne well in her retirement and hope that she continues to stay in touch with them.

Arrests from first week of summer drink and drug drive campaign

A summer drink and drug drive campaign, launched in Northamptonshire to coincide with the 2018 FIFA World Cup, has resulted in 11 people being arrested within its first week.

A period of increased enforcement activity was announced earlier this month as part of Operation Ticket, a wider programme of policing activities aimed at keeping the public safe from harm during the football season.

Between 15th and 21st June, the first week of escalated patrols on the lookout for drivers under the influence of drink or drugs, 11 people were arrested for these offences.

Eight people were arrested for drink driving, and three motorists were arrested for drug drive offences.

Enforcement activities, including roadside breath and drug tests, have been carried out at different times of day in an effort to track down those who have been driving under the influence.

PC Dave Lee, of the Safer Roads Team, said: "The World Cup is always a very social time, with many people choosing to spend time with family and friends either at home or in a local pub, watching the latest match and having a few drinks.

"What we would ask is that people also spare a thought for their own safety and the safety of others by not drinking and driving, and not driving under the influence of drugs.

"People should also remember the penalties of being caught drink driving, one of which is a driver losing their licence for a minimum of 12 months.

"It is very easy to organise a designated driver, or take a taxi or other form of public transport home if you have been drinking. Also, remember that a heavy drinking session could mean you are still over the limit the following day. Sleep does not make a person sober."

Last year, 709 motorists were caught driving while under the influence of alcohol in Northamptonshire. A total of 46 drivers were caught drug driving.

Harvey Chandler visits Windmill – his old school!

It was Herbert Spencer, the English philosopher, biologist, anthropologist, sociologist, and prominent classical liberal political theorist of the Victorian era who said, "to play billiards well is the sign of a misspent youth."

While billiards and snooker may not be the same game, they are not a million miles apart and so when professional snooker player and European Champion Harvey Chandler came to Windmill Primary in Raunds on Friday 15th June the children were keen to learn all about his journey since leaving the school in 2006 to European Snooker Champion in 2018, just 12 short years.

He talked about his experiences as a 'would-be' footballer and the reasons for changing his career direction towards a sport with much smaller, if greater in number, balls and the hours of practice that he puts in.

He inspired the children to give everything they can to achieving their dreams, extolling the value of resilience and ambition, and answered questions from the floor from children and staff.

While obviously not encouraging the children to 'misspend' their youth, it is great to see an ex-Windmill-er flying the flag for Raunds and his old school and we wish him the very best for the coming year – a world champion in the making?

Simon Bateson,
Assistant Principal

Genealogy jottings

Talking of censuses, as I was last time, do you know how they were taken? We might have the vision of a frock-coated chap wending his way from house to house with the 19th century equivalent of a clipboard in his hand, writing down whatever he heard. Erm... not quite.

A few days before the census was due to be taken, a form was delivered to each house and it was the responsibility of the head of the house to ensure that it was completed with the details of whoever was staying in the house on the night in question. This is where some misunderstandings occurred. I have seen people enumerated more than once – in their own home (even though they were absent) and again in the house they were visiting. I have one chap in my tree who was a policeman. He is recorded at home by his wife, at the Police Station where he was working that night, plus at the house of the criminal that he caught!

Back in the day, illiteracy amongst adults was fairly common and so children who had attended school were tasked with recording who was there. On some occasions, however, there were no literate children or even neighbours who could help and so the enumerator would step in. I reckon that is how my great grandfather's older brother was recorded as a girl! His name was Pharaoh but in the flat Essex accent, rhymed with Sarah – the name that was recorded! Oh yes – the man was the head of the house, never the woman! Not unless you were Queen Victoria, of course.

Once the schedules were collected, the information was then transferred over to the enumerator's records. Check marks and ticks on the pages can also make things difficult to read, such as ages – not to mention the handwriting! If ever you are at a loss, you can always ask for a second opinion of a record at my forum – details under my name.

Editor's notes

As we slip past the summer solstice and the longest day of the year it seems there is no end in sight to the beautifully warm weather we've been enjoying, and that shouldn't be seen as tempting fate because there is little in the forecast to suggest that we're in for a deterioration any time soon. So, instead of expressing the usual concern about embarking on the slippery slope towards winter, let's concentrate on looking forward to what could be an equally glorious end of summer. After all, in the northern hemisphere, the summer solstice is widely recognised as the official start of summer!

Dwelling on the seasons for a moment, it seems certain that the need for further economies at county council level is going to result in fewer roads being gritted in the coming winter. Last year the council gritted 1,954km of the county's 4,500km network but this winter it will be down to just one third of our roads.

The costs of waste collection and recycling are also being reviewed in an attempt to make savings; currently £20m is spent by the seven boroughs on collection with £23m being spent by NCC on recycling, treatment and disposal. Any reduction in services here seems certain to result in increased fly tipping with additional funds being required to combat that incredibly anti-social behaviour and clear up after it. Perhaps councillors are prepared to run that risk since the dumping almost always happens on privately owned land and the landowner has to foot the bill!

Meanwhile, last week saw the start of the public consultation into the future unitary councils arrangements for the county, a structure which is due to be imposed by May 2020, with one body serving some 400,000 residents in the western area and another looking after around 350,000 in the north. This process, which will last until 22nd July is going to cost residents at least £155,000 and will be spread across the existing eight councils. However, the final figure for the change has been estimated at a whopping £22m, which our politicians claim will be reclaimed in savings in the first three years of operations. To take part in the consultation go to www.futurenorthants.gov.uk

Finally, a Freedom of Information request about the cost to the county council of leasing One Angel Square after its sale eventually elicited the following response: 'From information provided by Property Services for another FOI request, I can confirm that the annual rent under the lease for One Angel Square is £2,105,298 per annum.'

Mayor's charities receive a share of £2,835

On 14th June Cllr Peter Tomas distributed the funds he raised during his Mayoral year which concluded in May 2018. Throughout the year he hosted several events and raised a grand total of £2,835. He supported charities which are all involved in supporting victims of cancer. Macmillan Nurses, Prostate Cancer Organisation and Crazy Hats all received £945.

Macmillan in Northamptonshire said: "We are so grateful to Peter Tomas and all involved in raising this generous donation, and it will go a long way to help us support people living with cancer. £945 could fund a Macmillan Nurse for nearly a week, helping people with the medical, emotional, practical and even financial effects of a cancer diagnosis. Macmillan's mission is to reach absolutely everybody who hears the news they have cancer, and this money is going to get us even closer to that vision."

Rising Rushden music artist taps into expanding markets

Rushden based musician ELLiSiON has been selected to perform on the New Music Stage at the MFY National Festival in Birmingham on 3rd July. ELLiSiON, who is currently studying at the Academy for Contemporary Music (ACM) in Guildford, will be performing his original track 'Aberdeen' at the event. Combining finger drumming with a fusion of lo-fi, pop, glitch hop and R&B, ELLiSiON creates a distinctive vibrant 3D visual sound and has recently been performing across the south east of England and on mainland Europe. Frequently performing on stage with guest singers, rappers and producers ELLiSiON has appeared at the Victorious Festival, Spannabis in Barcelona and at established London venues such as The Bedford, Swordtail Studios and Camden Assembly. In 2017 he released his single Wreck Me and his EP and music are available on Spotify and other leading music media outlets.

In 2018 Escape Hunt a global leader in the rapidly expanding escape games leisure market, commissioned ELLiSiON to design the sounds and compose the supporting music for their two new escape rooms Our Finest Hour and The Fourth Samurai. These have now been opened in Birmingham, Bristol and Leeds ahead of a global roll out. Currently Escape Hunt have 50 locations across the globe. ELLiSiON has been commissioned to develop the sound design for a further series of games currently under development, which are due to be launched later next year.

The dates and locations of ELLiSiON's performances and links to listen to his music can be found via his website www.ellisionsound.com on Instagram and Spotify at ellisonmusic.

Before going to ACM, ELLiSiON went to school in Rushden and Sharnbrook and was involved with the Northamptonshire music scene performing with the band TheWiseOldOwls and also as a solo acoustic artist.

From the ENC Chairman

It has been a busy month since taking over as Chairman of East Northamptonshire Council in May. One of my first engagements was attending a musical evening hosted by Cllr Paul Bell, Deputy Mayor of the Borough of Wellingborough, at the Castle Theatre in Wellingborough – what a fabulous evening watching such talented performers.

On Bank Holiday Monday I had the pleasure of attending the Proclamation of the 814th Rothwell Ancient Street Fair; it was well worth the early start.

At the stroke of six o'clock on the first Monday morning after the Feast of the Holy Trinity the Proclamation Ceremony begins; at the west door of the Holy Trinity Church, crowds gather round the Bailiff on his horse, surrounded by his Halberdier bodyguards and the Rowell Fair Society Band. The proclamation Charter of King James I is then read aloud by the Bailiff and the crowd give a rousing cheer of "God Save The Queen and The Lord of the Manor" before the National Anthem is played by the band.

I also attended the Civic Service of the Mayor of Kettering where we were warmly welcomed by the Mayor and Mayoress, Cllr James and Mrs Lorraine Burton. The procession to and from St Peter and St Paul Church was led by the excellent Northampton Pipe Band.

A visit to RAF Alconbury together with other Civic leaders, where we received a warm welcome, was a very interesting afternoon. We were given a tour of the base and Mission Briefs and had the pleasure of meeting both Senior Officers and Young Airmen.

Thursday 14th June saw Stage Two of the OVO Energy Women's Tour starting in Rushden. There was a fantastic turnout to cheer the riders on; many of you were there to soak up the amazing atmosphere. Well done to all those who helped organise the event and the volunteers without whom such events would not be possible and last but not least the riders themselves! It was great to see so many local school children at the event; 550 Primary School children from schools in Rushden, Higham Ferrers, Irthlingborough and Stanwick enjoyed a day of cycling related activities once they had cheered the riders off.

Cllr Wendy Brackenbury,
Chairman of East Northamptonshire Council

Rushden Swimming Club pays special tribute at Licensed Open Meet

After a great deal of preparation Rushden Swimming Club was proud to host its first George Thompson level 3 Licensed Open Meet at The Queen's Diamond Jubilee Centre in Rugby on Saturday 9th June.

The meet was held at Rugby due to the pool having its own computerised timing system. It is now planned for the meet to be an annual event on the Competitive Swimming calendar.

The George Thompson Open Meet was named in memory of RSC's Lifelong President who sadly passed away in 2015. The swimming club was an enormous part of George's life; from his competitive swimming days which began at the age of 12, to coaching and as a long standing member of the Committee. George was the last person to swim in the old open air Rushden pool (which was condemned in 1985) and the very first person to swim in the new Splash pool which opened in 1990.

It was an exciting and emotional day. Before the meet started a presentation was made to Anne Cooper (George's daughter) whose family attended the meet as special guests. Rushden Swimming Club would like to thank all volunteers for helping out on the day and to Daventry, Corby and St Neots Swimming Clubs for attending.

For more information about joining Rushden Swimming Club visit the website www.rushdenswimmingclub.co.uk contact via Facebook or pop in and have a look round during the club's main training night at Splash Leisure pool Monday evenings 7pm-10pm.

Kelmarsh Hall prepares for Great British Food Festival

Preparations are well under way for the Great British Food Festival which will take place in the grounds of the stunning Kelmarsh Hall, near Northampton over the weekend of 7th–8th July.

Over 75 different traders will be in attendance, amongst them artisan food producers and street food vendors will be busy making, preserving, baking and packing, jams, cakes, cheese, sausages and lots of other tasty treats! Along with wonderful food and drink producers there will be a great lineup of local bands, fantastic chef demos, foodie talks, Man vs Food competitions and a bake stage.

Dan Maycock, one of the organisers said: “We have got a great mix of local produce and best of British, coming from further afield. On the hot food front you will be able to try anything from traditional hog roast to Mexican and Thai dishes, so hopefully something for all tastes!”

The Chef Demo stage hosts a headline name for each day, with ex-Great British Bake Off stars, Francis Quinn and Jane Beedle all doing demos over the weekend. Alongside the celeb chefs, some of the best regional talent will be showcasing their skills; from baking tips to fine dining know-how, the demo theatre is the place to be for any budding chef. On top of cooking up treats on the demo stage, the Bake Off stars will be overseeing the popular Great British Cake Off, where amateur bakers compete head-to-head in three baking categories (see www.greatbritishfoodfestival.com for details and to enter), and best of all if you enter a cake you get free entry to the festival!

There is entertainment for all the family over the weekend, including kids’ cookery lessons, free circus skills, and children’s rides. With live music throughout the day from a playlist packed full of top local bands, it’s a great day out for the whole family. So bring a blanket and sit out for the day enjoying great food and drink, live music and beautiful surroundings. The perfect recipe for a fun, foodie day out for the whole family.

See www.greatbritishfoodfestival.com for discounted advanced tickets.

Traction engine weekend

There is a “Steam Up” event at Barnwell Country Park with quarter-sized traction engines on the weekend of Saturday & Sunday 13th/14th July. Sunday will be hosted by the Friends of Barnwell Country Park when there will be a beer tent (Digfield Ales) and BBQ (meat provided by the famous local Seven Well Butchers of Oundle). In the afternoon, the engines will be joined and entertained by the excellent Raunds Temperance Band who will be playing a full brass band session. It is reported that the drivers may also need to leave the park on Saturday evening to drive their engines to a local pub in the centre of Oundle to slake their collective thirst after a hard day’s work. Why not join them at Barnwell Country Park for a wonderful weekend!

Wildlife News

Summer has its own particular sound – the buzzing of many insects of all sizes; for some people that is a little worrying because it comes with the bites and stings which so often spoil our relaxation in the sun. We can use sunscreens and ultraviolet absorbers to protect our skins, but it is not always easy to find a surefire way to stop visits by these airborne attackers. Even the sound itself can start a search for protection of some sort, especially if the traditional defence of a rolled-up newspaper or magazine does not scare off the unwanted visitor.

Of course those sounds are not meant for our ears, but they do remind us that millions of creatures have their place in the wildlife web, each filling an important slot, therefore to them we are the real intruders. Not all of them are thoughtful enough to provide warning signals of their arrival, and it is unfair to the vast majority to label them as “unwanted”; far from it, because many of them carry out vital functions in the countryside. We can see the larger ones, like the bees, butterflies and moths, playing their parts in plant life by transferring pollen from one flower to another, without which there would be no seeds and fruit in autumn, at the end of the growing season. Did you know, by the way, that a learned mathematician once calculated that it was impossible for a bumble bee to fly? – luckily nobody told the bees! Smaller insects like flies also help in transferring pollens, so not all kinds of insects should be labelled as villains (biters or stingers) deserving a deadly slap on the arm.

The chain of reserves along our river valley provide essential sites, free from too much disturbance, where these insects can breed, and produce the offspring supplying food for many others to feed their own babies. If our walks around the lakes suffer from their flying visits (buzzing or biting) those are natural everyday events, and as more of our countryside disappears under housing and industrial developments we should interfere as little as possible, even if it means putting up with those annoying clouds of midges in the evenings.

Roy Burrell

East Northants Snooker League

Week 6 of the ENSL Summer League and Coopers Ball Bashers have raced up to top spot, much to everyone's surprise. Ball Bashers were at home taking on the mighty Windmill G. Lee Bunker outplayed Craig Back in the opening frames with Craig conceding early on in each frame. Steve Ridgewell played solidly against Jay Thomas, winning both of his frames on the colours.

Coopers Troopers played Windmill C, both teams looking for a win to move them out of the bottom half of the table. Roger Hayes-Roome lost the first frame to Tony Jupp, but he managed to win the second frame by some margin. Dean Coombes beat James Rawlins in two very closely contested frames.

Windmill Warriors were away to Higham Mecca – these two teams have had some great battles over the years. Wayne Gardner got Mecca off to a flying start as he beat Michael Dicks 2-0 in a scrappy affair. At 2-2 Darren Fenner then played Paul Lewis in the last game. Darren struggled to pot anything in the first frame giving Paul the win. However, he came back much stronger in the final frame and won easily with balls to spare.

The Windmill Underdogs had a BYE this week, so they had to sit it out, meaning they have slipped back slightly in the table. Coopers D had to postpone their match against Higham SAS, but have rescheduled for a new date.

Coopers Troopers 4-2 Windmill C
Higham Mecca 3-3 Windmill Warriors
Coopers Ball Bashers 6-0 Windmill G
Coopers D v Higham SAS = POSTPONED
Windmill Underdogs = BYE
