Recognition for ENC Building Control

ENC's Building Control department has been awarded the ISO 9001:2015 certificate by Alcumus ISOQAR, in association with a national scheme of quality management developed by Local Authority Building Control (LABC), the body which represents councils' building control nationally.

This accreditation highlights ENC's full compliance with the International Standard for Quality and quality management principles, including a strong customer focus.

Each area of building control is reviewed to ensure smooth running of processes and tasks, training and competency.

Leader of East Northamptonshire Council, Steven North, said: "It is great news that our building control department have been recognised by the industry assessor... We will continue to work with industry bodies to ensure that we are delivering first-class services for our residents."

Warning over livestock worrying as lambing season begins

With the lambing season now underway, dog owners are being reminded to keep their pets on a lead near livestock to help stop animals being hurt or killed.

Livestock worrying is the term used when a dog is loose around farm animals on agricultural land and acts in a way which could cause injury or suffering, such as alarming, chasing or attacking them.

It is a criminal offence, and under the law, a dog worrying livestock can be shot and killed. Owners are responsible for keeping their dog under control, or can face a fine of up to £1,000. In 2018, Northamptonshire Police received at least 30 reports of livestock worrying, including instances of sheep found dead or injured.

Anyone who shoots a dog to prevent livestock worrying must notify police within 48 hours.

Livestock worrying facts:

Animals classed as livestock include sheep, cattle, goats, pigs, horses, donkeys, mules and poultry, including chicken, turkeys, geese and ducks.

Agricultural land includes land used as arable, meadow or grazing land, for poultry farming, pig farming and market gardens, as well as allotments, nursery grounds and orchards.

Tips for safe and responsible dog walking around livestock:

- Keep dogs on a lead and under control when walking through fields of livestock

- Always stick to public rights of way and leave all gates as you found them
- If you live beside land where livestock is grazed ensure you know where your dog is at all times, and keep your property secure so your dog cannot escape
- Cows can be curious and may follow walkers. If this happens, keep facing the animal and move calmly and slowly, don't turn your back to it or run
- Steer well clear of young animals and do not try to pet them. Cows with calves will be protective and may become aggressive
- If you feel threatened by cattle when with a dog, let go of the lead so you and the dog can get to safety separately

Wellingborough marks Commonwealth Day

Residents across the borough are invited to join representatives from Wellingborough Council for a ceremony on Monday 11th March to commemorate Commonwealth Day.

The Mayor of Wellingborough, Cllr Malcolm Ward, will read out a specially written Commonwealth Affirmation. Messages from Her Majesty The Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, and the Rt Hon Patricia Scotland QC, Secretary-General of the Commonwealth of Nations will also be read out during the ceremony.

The event, which is now in its fifth year, will take place in front of the council's Swanspool House from 10am and residents are advised to arrive by 9.55am. The celebration is one of more than 700 similar events taking place throughout the UK and around the world.

The 'Fly a Flag for the Commonwealth' initiative is again catching the imagination of thousands of participants from all walks of life, inspiring them to join with others throughout the Commonwealth. As a collective public expression of commitment to the Commonwealth, it enables participants to show appreciation for the values the Commonwealth upholds, and the opportunities offered for friendship and cooperation with fellow Commonwealth citizens of all ages around the world.

Genealogy jottings

I mentioned recently that one branch of my family stayed in the same town for over 400 years. They were blacksmiths and the trade was passed down from father to son until the beginning of the 20th century, when they diversified. However, this is not always the case and you can find your ancestors in unexpected places.

I was helping with someone's family tree recently where the main occupation was that of lacemaker. As the family lived in Nottingham, this was not unexpected, but they were nowhere to be seen in the 1881 census. They were in Nottingham, making lace in 1871 and back there, still making lace, in 1891. However, checking the place of birth for their children, two of them had been born in France around the time of the 1881 census. That explained why they were missing from Nottingham!

One of my ancestors was born in Leiston, Suffolk and worked on the land as an Ag Lab (Agricultural Labourer). He can be found in two censuses until the age of 16, after which he disappeared. It took a long while to track

By Jan Pearson
Genealogy Specialists, Tracing Our Past, Discovering Our Genes (TOP DOG) www.genealogy-specialists.com

him down but he finally turned up in Luton, Bedfordshire, working in the hat-making trade. A long way from being an Ag Lab in Suffolk! So don't be at all surprised if your people move around and even change occupations.

The industrial revolution had a lot to do with occupation changes – many folk working the land moved to the large cities to find better work and wages. The introduction of the London Underground also brought people in from the surrounding areas to help build it. The Metropolitan Railway opened in 1863 but had to be built first and there certainly was not enough labour available in London.

It pays to look at the wider historical picture if you find that your ancestors suddenly up sticks and change jobs.

Editor's notes

You will all have your views on the cost and quality of services we receive from our local authorities, but we would like to offer some thoughts on the subject of a Tale of 2 Councils. First, at its budget meeting on 4th March, East Northamptonshire Council (ENC) agreed to increase its share of Council Tax for 2019-20, adding £5 per year to an average household's Council Tax bill. The increase is required to help protect vital services, keep ENC on a sound financial footing and contribute to the preparation work for the proposed North Northants Unitary Authority (note that final point).

The District Council takes only around 8p in every pound of your total Council Tax bill, with the rest of the money going to Northamptonshire County Council, the Northamptonshire Police and Crime Commissioner and to town and parish councils.

Councillor Steven North, Leader of ENC, said: "East Northamptonshire Council is working hard to deliver good services for residents while keeping them affordable; our District Council services cost households less than a cup of coffee per week. Through sensible financial planning and improving efficiency of our services and back-office teams, we have managed to avoid making cuts to services that our residents need and value. However, the financial climate in which local government operates continues to be challenging and because we want to continue to invest in our communities, we think this small increase represents good value for money."

Meanwhile, it seems that the cost of setting up two new Unitary Authority Councils for Northamptonshire is set to increase by £14m. Whereas initial estimates suggested that the two new councils would cost £30m to establish, a recent report indicates that the figure will be closer to £44m; in round terms an increase of 50%.

The new figures have set alarm bells ringing at County Hall, with leader Councillor Matt Golby saying: "I am very concerned by this escalation in the estimated cost of introducing Unitary Councils. At a time when, as an organisation, we have succeeded in building far more sustainable financial foundations, have worked tirelessly to balance our budgets and have now turned a corner, I am alarmed by the ever-increasing costs of this programme to take us into Unitary. I am seeking to get more information to better understand the reasons for this and will certainly want to discuss further with colleagues."

We can all appreciate the economies of scale associated with amalgamating services and the staff delivering them, but surely it is time for the Secretary of State for Housing, Communities and Local Government, James Brokenshire, to review the advice provided by Mr Max Caller when he recommended the Two Unitary Authority solution for our county.

Higham Ferrers consults on a new Community Centre

Higham Ferrers Town Council is consulting on a proposed new Community Centre.

Higham Ferrers has grown by more than 37% since 2001 and the facilities have not always matched this growth. The Community Plan highlighted the need for a Community Centre. The Council is embarking on an exciting project to construct a new community building at Saffron Road Recreation Ground, which could:-

- Replace the Sports Pavilion as it is no longer fit for purpose.
- Provide additional community facilities for hire such as meeting and function rooms.
- Provide offices for the Town Council, as the current premises do not meet the growing needs of the community.

In May 2018 the Council did consider whether to purchase the current Library building on Midland Road. However, with the purchase price of £367,500 and the work that was required to make it meet the growing needs of the community, a budget was needed in the region of £750,000. The Council felt it would be more prudent to put these funds towards a new building which would meet the needs of the community in decades to come.

At this early stage the Council are consulting with the community to gauge support for the project, as well as asking for ideas on what should be in the building.

Copies of the questionnaire will be delivered to each house in the town with the Rushden Reporter. Copies will also be available from the Town Hall and the Library.

Spotlight on Irthlingborough

The town of Irthlingborough has come on in leaps and bounds in the last few months with the arrival of an outdoor gym, new shops and an award-winning youth club.

The home of long established companies such as Whitworths (1886), Utile Engineering (1910) and Sonifex (1969), Irthlingborough recently welcomed a Co-op store (Church St), an Aldi (Attley Way) and a new florist, The Flower Company of Irthlingborough (High St).

Irthlingborough has something for everyone, including social clubs for the elderly, regular jive nights at the Town Band Club for the young at heart, and recreation grounds and skate parks for the youths. The 1st Irthlingborough Scout Group last year celebrated its 110th anniversary.

Annual events such as the carnival, I-Grow's May Day celebrations and Christmas Fest, monthly bingo nights at the community centre and weekly coffee mornings around town, mean Irthlingborough folk are always going somewhere! With the imminent publication of a new town guide containing business listings and local information, residents will soon have details of amenities and services to hand.

Headway East Northants (a day centre for people with brain injuries) is located beneath the library in the High St and the National Autistic Society can be found in Attley Way. Irthlingborough Library is keen to work with all community groups, as footfall is important in these uncertain times.

St Peter's Church with its unique lantern tower is a mere stone's throw from the breathtaking former Irthlingborough Lakes and Meadows Reserve, managed by the Wildlife Trust for Bedfordshire, Cambridgeshire and Northamptonshire. The area has now been absorbed into the much larger Nene Wetlands nature reserve, this stretches to Ditchford Land and incorporates Rushden Lakes. The Nene Wetlands cover an area of 1 square mile, and is part of the Upper Nene Valley Site of Special Scientific Interest and Special Protection Area which makes it internationally important for wildlife. Over 20,000 migratory birds visit the reserve every year from as far away as South Africa and Siberia. It is the Wildlife Trust's largest nature reserve in Northants and is also home to their very first visitor centre.

Following on from the success of last year's Wedding Fair, Irthlingborough Town Council is delighted to announce that it will be staging a repeat event on Sunday 7th April from 11.30am to 2.30pm at the Irthlingborough Community Centre in the Crow Hill area of the town. Please come along and speak with the various exhibitors who will be happy to answer all your questions regarding your big day. The hall will be decked out for a wedding banquet and you will be able to view the kitchen, courtyard garden and the complex as a whole. This newly refurbished community centre offers very reasonable hire rates and is the ideal space for parties, conferences, business seminars and more.

The outdoor gym is situated at the Central Recreation Ground at which free gym buddy sessions take place every Monday morning from 10am. All ages welcome.

Irthlingborough Food Bank can be contacted on 07804857119.

NANNA

NANNA (Northamptonshire Animals Needing Nurturing and Adoption) was set up in 2004. We have a large team of volunteers who all have two interests in common: the welfare of the animals in our care and making sure they either find new forever homes, or they stay with us until they do.

If you have a couple of hours to spare, we take the dogs on 'pack' walks every Tuesday at 6pm and Saturday at 4pm and we would love you to come along and get involved. On 24th March we shall be taking them further afield for a seaside day. If you have more time, we are constantly fundraising through online pet shows, table top sales, auctions, eBay, coffee mornings, sponsored events, and plain, old-fashioned collecting tins.

From February to December we are involved in dog shows, which are advertised in Nene Valley News. The next one is Unicorns and Rainbows at Sharnbrook on 21st April. There will be 24 classes so plenty of opportunity for your canine friend(s) to shine! And if you want further evidence of why we do this, visit our Facebook page, Pets Rehomed from NANNA, to see photos and news of our ex-residents.

News from the Chairman

Congratulations to all those involved in Thrapston Plaza Opera’s production of Donizetti’s ‘The Daughter of the Regiment’, at the newly refurbished Plaza Centre. What a fantastic production! As I have previously remarked, there is a lot of talent on our doorstep.

As well as attending the comic opera, we have enjoyed the Civic Service for the Mayor of Peterborough and supported the Mayor of Kettering at his charity lunch. The diary is getting busy as we approach the last few months of the Civic Year and I continue to enjoy meeting residents across the district. It truly is a pleasure and an honour to represent the district at so many events.

It was particularly lovely to be out and about over a weekend in February that was unseasonably warm. The sunshine makes us all smile and we, like many others, enjoyed a beautiful walk around the lake at Rushden Lakes. The attached photograph shows just how stunning the water looked. Please share any photos you take of the district (sun or rain) on my Twitter feed @ENCChairman so that others can enjoy them.

ENC Chairman,
Cllr Wendy Brackenbury

Enthusiastic entrepreneurs excel in fundraising extravaganza!

Students at The Ferrers School were delighted to be able to present a cheque for £1,685.82 to the British Heart Foundation (BHF) recently, after Year 8 pupils wholeheartedly joined in a unique fundraising adventure.

The One Pound Challenge (OPC), brainchild of entrepreneur Alan Radbourne, inspires those involved to see what can be achieved from investing and reinvesting £1 in just one year.

The Ferrers School students were presented with £1 and had just three weeks to make a profit, with ideas such as making and selling British Heart Foundation motif shaped ribbons and keyrings and holding raffles.

Hannah Pennock, Fundraising Manager for BHF, joined students for an assembly to let them know just how much of a difference their contribution would make. Adam Willson was also in attendance, representing Wilson Browne Solicitors. The Northamptonshire legal firm made the event possible by way of a generous donation to ensure each student had a pound to invest and grow.

Headteacher Angela Smith said: "This is the first time we have participated in the One Pound Challenge and our students have excelled themselves. We are so proud of each and every student who thought of interesting and innovative ways to raise this grand total. Of course, we're also extremely grateful to Wilson Browne Solicitors and are delighted to continue to support The British Heart Foundation."

Speculation regarding costs for Northamptonshire unitary programme

There has been recent speculation regarding the potential cost of delivering the Northamptonshire unitary programme.

The estimated costs totalling around £44m have not yet been agreed by senior officers or councillors at any of the eight councils, and are currently under review. It is important to recognise that, while these costs will inevitably be significant, they will be far outweighed by the benefits to be delivered in the years following the creation of the two unitary councils, should the Secretary of State decide to proceed with that proposal.

The changes are essential in order to enable the Council to provide high-quality, joined-up services in the future, to the benefit of all local residents and communities.

If you have any questions about the potential changes to local government in Northamptonshire, please contact your local council by <https://www.east-northamptonshire.gov.uk/lgr>

ENC Local Plan

East Northants Council's Policy Planning Committee discussed the Draft Local Plan, covering the period up until 2031, at a meeting on 18th February.

The Plan deals with a range of issues within the compass of the District Council and they are keen to have it completed ahead of the change to a 2-statutory body structure to replace the existing County Council. It seems that the one issue continuing to cause concern locally is the housing allocation within the plan and, in particular, that concerning Oundle.

The results of an extended period of consultation on the District Plan have been aggregated but, at the time of the meeting, not analysed. 297 separate responses were received regarding the sites allocated by ENC Planning Officers. It seems the majority of these supported the plans put forward by Oundle Town Council for 300 houses built on seven sites spread around the town rather than the same number on three sites as proposed by ENC Planners.

Meetings of the ENC in March and April will consider the representations before agreeing the Plan to be forwarded to Inspectors. A lot of work and much compromise is needed to bring together the different views of local residents and Planning Officers.

Oundle Art Group Annual Exhibition

The community society of Oundle Art Group is very proud to be once again holding its 'Annual Exhibition' in the superb surroundings of St Peter's Church, Oundle, in Northamptonshire.

A wonderful display is expected of both contemporary and more traditional paintings, showcasing the rich and diverse variety of the members' work.

The exhibition will be open from Thursday 25th April until Thursday 2nd May, between 10am and 4pm daily (and from 12.30pm on Sunday). The preview evening being held on Wednesday 24th April between 6pm and 7.30pm is the perfect opportunity for guests to meet and mingle with the artists.

Admission is free and all visitors are most welcome. OAG is a friendly coming together of people interested in art. They meet regularly on a Thursday at Tansor Village Hall between 1.45pm–3.45pm.

The group is made up of accomplished, enthusiastic amateur and 'just for fun' artists, with their goal to simply enjoy creating and encouraging each other to experiment and develop their interest. They 'dabble' in all mediums of work including watercolour, oil, pastel and sketching.

All newcomers (and returning members) are most welcome.

For further information, why not just visit the exhibition and have a chat with one of the stewards or simply drop into Tansor Village Hall during an art session. Chairperson: Jane Sanders Tel: 01832 226495.

Mistaken Identity

Whether as a matter of magic, disguise, or simple human error, William Shakespeare often used mistaken identity as a plot device in his plays – particularly the comedies. And that's one of the reasons it's been chosen as the theme for this year's celebration of Shakespeare Week at Oundle Library.

'Mistaken Identity – Readings from Shakespeare' is being organised by the Friends of Oundle Library with the help of Oundle U3A's Shakespeare Group 4. There will be readings from a number of different plays, including the Comedy of Errors, Twelfth Night, the Merry Wives of Windsor and the Merchant of Venice.

"We've chosen scenes that are engaging, funny, and mostly well known," says group leader, Gill Potts. "It may be more than 400 years since these plays were written but they portray the human condition so well, and the characters and situations are still very entertaining."

'Mistaken Identity – Readings from Shakespeare' will be at Oundle Library on Saturday, 23rd March at 2.30pm. This is a free event. Everyone welcome.

Residential landlord forum and exhibition

Councils in Northamptonshire, in partnership with a landlord advice service and accountants, are delivering an event for landlords and letting agents across the county to provide advice and support about the private rent sector.

Corby Borough Council, East Northamptonshire Council, Borough Council of Wellingborough and Kettering Borough Council will be delivering a residential landlord forum and exhibition at the Holiday Inn, Corby, on Thursday 6th June from 4pm-8pm.

The event will provide local landlords and letting agents with the opportunity to speak to representatives from all four councils, East Midlands Property Owners (EMPO) and Shapcotts Chartered Accounts.

The exhibition, which is free to attend, will cover a whole host of topics including upcoming and recent changes to housing legislation, an update regarding local authority private renting and landlord tax.

Leader of East Northamptonshire Council, Cllr Steven North, said: "This event will provide local landlords and letting agents with an opportunity to speak to our colleagues and industry experts about the private rent sector.

"Our team will be on hand to offer advice and support for residents, I would encourage all landlords to come along and find out more about these changes that will affect them."

Giles Inman, Business Development Manager at EMPO, added: "As the regional residential landlord association for the area, we want to ensure all Northamptonshire landlords understand their legal responsibilities in respect to providing decent and safe housing in an ever increasingly regulated sector."

Kimberley Shapcott, Director at Shapcotts Accountants and Property Investor, stated: "The tax regime for landlords has changed quite significantly over recent years making it very important for landlords to keep up to date to maximise their rental returns and minimise their tax liabilities. We will be sharing the current update and useful tips to stay on the right side of the tax authorities."

To reserve your place and for more information please email Giles Inman, Business Development Manager at EMPO: giles@empo.co.uk

Wildlife News

Spring, the calendar tells us, is here, and the weather at the end of February tried its hardest to live up to popular hopes with unexpected and unseasonal sunshine and temperatures much higher than average. So our wildlife was lulled into a premature waking-up process; birds were pairing off ready for nest building (and squabbling over food for the expectant hens), some buds were showing streaks of pale green leaf, and various early-flowering plants were even earlier than usual.

Walking round the lakes on one of the local reserves revealed a sight which is not a traditional 'spring reminder'; it looked as if a load of large tube-shaped cotton buds on long sticks had been pushed into the edge of the lake like a crowd of feather dusters.

This was the spring output of the plant giant known either as reedmace or bulrush, a regular inhabitant along the edges of stretches of water, especially if still. It will grow up to six feet or so, and during the year it produces two kinds of flower head, one male and one female; the fluffy heads we see now are the resulting seed heads. But the plant also spreads from the roots, as the large clumps give shelter at the base of the plants for thousands of the small creatures which inhabit our lakes.

It may not please those who like everything tidy, because those feathery plumes scatter their fibres freely. And when the stems finally bend and break, there's useful material for nest-building. The swans will soon be showing their skills in that work.

East Northants Snooker League

Things got interesting this week as Windmill C delivered a 6-0 thumping over Windmill D to move up into 2nd place. The bye proving very costly for Coopers Ball Bashers this week. However, Windmill C and Coopers Ball Bashers will play each other on the last game of the season to decide who is Runner-Up.

Coopers A did enough to maintain their top position drawing with Higham SAS. Colin Hinds continued his impressive run of form as he beat Adam Underwood across two frames, albeit Adam gave good fight. In the final two frames both team captains went head to head. They eventually shared it, one frame each, with Pete recording his season best break of 28 in the fifth frame.

Windmill B entertained a Windmill Warriors side looking to reduce their deficit at the bottom of the table. Warriors gave a debut to James York but he was unable to make much headway against Tony Jupp. Roy Barlow managed to win frame three against Michael Dicks before he inexplicably missed the deciding black ball to hand frame four to Dicks. Up stepped the out of form Richard Wright to force a 3-3 draw with excellent potting against Alan Jupp.

In the match between Coopers Troopers and Windmill Underdogs, Joe Evans and James Dolby split the opening two frames. Sean Britchford played superbly to grab the next frame from his opponent Dave McDowell. They followed it up with some agonisingly bad shots, but Sean managed to grind it out to win that frame too. Dean Coombes was out-potted by Neal Vaughan in frame five, but he made up for it, winning frame six, to give Troopers a decent 4-2 win.

Marc Brett produced his usual sublime standard to overcome Paul 'Teddy' Whyte. Frame three was extremely close until Stewart Brown fluked the pink in the dying stages to win the frame against Justin White. But Stewart played brilliantly in the next frame. James Rawlins potted consistently well to beat Aaron Whittemore quite effortlessly, giving Windmill C a magnificent 6-0 victory at home!

This week's results:

Windmill B 3-3 Windmill Warriors
Coopers Troopers 4-2 Windmill Underdogs
Coopers A 3-3 Higham SAS
Windmill C 6-0 Windmill D
Coopers Ball Bashers = BYE
