Mission to Mars for young students at Tresham College

Schoolchildren from across Northamptonshire spent a day at Tresham College in Corby during half-term, being inspired to become the scientists and engineers of the future.

As part of a Routes Into STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics) programme organised by the Engineering Development Trust, Tresham College developed a unique programme of experiences for the students with a 'Mission to Mars' theme including: building a robotic

Mars Lander; UV protection; and building habitats on the red planet.

The Bedford College Group Director of STEM, Jo Baxter said: "This has been a fantastic opportunity for Tresham College to work with EDT and local schools to raise student awareness of the STEM options in Further Education. These students have been able to experience our state-of-the-art computer, science and engineering equipment here at Corby Campus and hopefully they will return to study with us in the future."

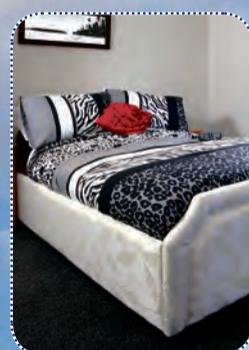

The Routes Into STEM programme is part of the EDT Industrial Cadet Scheme where young people can progress through a series of awards from age 9-21 years. The aim is to encourage students to study STEM subjects and support them with innovative courses, gaining first-hand experience of life at college, university and in the workplace.

Routes into STEM Co-ordinator Steve Ross said: "EDT are very grateful to Tresham College for hosting day 1 of a three-day course called Routes into STEM. Tresham College arranged a packed agenda of hands-on science, engineering and computing activities, which were arranged to show students different aspects of STEM learning. The course itself is designed to highlight to students that FE colleges, as well as universities, can provide the education necessary for exciting and diverse career options in the STEM arena."

Tresham College is part of The Bedford College Group, the number one provider of technology training linked to thousands of employers in the SEMLEP Region.

Barnwell Park Sleep Out

Barnwell Park are aiming for another exciting overnight micro-adventure in the park this midsummer, Saturday 29th June to be precise.

If you have kids and care about making sure they understand and enjoy the natural world then this all-nighter in Barnwell Country Park is not to be missed. The price is £12.50 per adult and £7.50 per child, plus a car parking charge of £5 if applicable. Bring your tent or bivvy bag, sleeping bags, basic eating utensils (a plate, bowl, mug and spoon each) and a picnic supper.

Be sure to dress warmly, it gets cold later on and everyone is going to be out all night.

Please arrive by 3pm to pitch camp, explore and take part in nature study activities. The event will begin earlier this year because the dragonflies go to sleep (who knew?) and this will give everyone the chance to see and admire them before they get their jammies on and head for dragonfly bed.

There will be hot chocolate at bedtime and breakfast when you wake up.

For more information go to the Park's website at www.barnwellcountryparkfriends.org.uk

Genealogy jottings

The year 1752: a very important year in history and one that needs to be borne in mind if you are researching your family history. Why? Well, it was in that year that the calendar changed from the Julian system to the Gregorian system. In previous years, the method for calculating leap years had come adrift and so dates were mismatched with the seasons. Most of Europe was already using the Gregorian calendar by this time and so there was the added confusion of travelling abroad and finding that you had travelled further through time than you thought!

It took an Act of Parliament two years earlier to put the mechanisms into place for the changes. There were three main adjustments: The formula for calculating leap years changed, New Year's day moved from 25th March to 1st January and 11 days were shelved in order to help bring things in line. These dates were September 3rd to 13th 1752 inclusive – so don't try looking for events during those dates!

If you are looking at records before 1752, remember... New Year's Day was 25th March and so the dates would be 24th March 1745 followed by 25th March 1746... This is especially puzzling if you find that someone appears to have died before they were born. A babe might arrive on 12th November 1747 and be buried on 14th February 1747, but they would be three months old. Confusing, eh?

This is why you will find some dates transcribed as January 1731/32 for example, showing that it was still 1731 in the Julian calendar but would be 1732 if using the Gregorian calendar. When recording your own family's dates, it would be as well to follow suit as then it would be a gentle reminder to bear in mind that from January to March before 1752, the year could do with a second look.

Time for a lie-down in a darkened room, methinks...

Editor's notes

Citizens Advice has revealed statistics showing that 72% of the population have been the target of scams in the last two years. These figures were released ahead of Scam Awareness Fortnight which runs from 10th-23rd June. To coincide with the event, East Northamptonshire Council (ENC) has issued a warning to residents across the district to be wary and to report anything suspicious.

Councillor Steven North, Leader of ENC, said: "With nearly three-quarters of us having been victims of scams, it is important that the public are vigilant and report anything suspicious. The elderly remain the most vulnerable, with criminals still using the more traditional techniques, alongside the recent rise in cyber scams."

Citizens Advice has put together the following advice: if unsure, say "no" and don't be pressured to make an instant decision; be aware of the potential of encountering rogue traders or postal scams and always keep your personal details safe; if possible, research the credentials of the company you're dealing with and be online savvy by checking who you're communicating with; finally, if you're suspicious talk to someone you trust and if necessary report a scam.

If you think you or someone you know might have been the victim of a scam, contact Action Fraud on 0300 123 2040.

Meanwhile a motion of no confidence in the leadership of Northamptonshire County Council's Matt Golby is to be debated at a full council meeting on 20th June. The motion reads: 'This Council calls for the resignation of Northamptonshire County Council leader Matt Golby due to his inability over six years to deliver improvements in our children's services.'

This situation has arisen because of the failings of the Council's Children's Services and in particular the high-profile murders of two Northamptonshire children; the serious case reviews found that mistakes had been made by Council professionals and that opportunities had been missed.

The matter was also raised in Parliament, with Philip Hollobone, MP for Kettering, saying responsibility for the failings must rest with Conservative-run Northamptonshire County Council. He said: "The public in Kettering want to know who is going to take responsibility for this appalling tragedy and I'm afraid the answer must lie with the local councillor in charge of children's services at the time. That individual now happens to be the leader of Northamptonshire County Council. He is a good man and he is working very hard to transform the council into the two unitaries, but I believe that the buck most stop with the person at the top." Last week Cllr Golby said he would not be stepping down.

Raunds Music Festival fringe event

Monday 1st July, Ringstead Shared Church – 8pm.

American violinist extraordinaire Dan Cassidy and virtuoso guitarist James Hickman, who thrilled a local audience in November 2018, return to Ringstead leading the amazing Dan Cassidy Swing Quartet.

Expect an evening of hot tunes capturing the effervescent spirit of the swinging 1930s combined with Dan's unique wit and charm. They will play a variety of what they describe as 'hot tunes and gypsy jazz' tunes that are designed to capture the spirit of the swing era.

Dan, the brother of the late singer Eva Cassidy, grew up in a musical family in Maryland, USA. He began his musical career at 17, playing in several bands, and toured extensively in Germany and the UK. He has spent the last 15 years in Iceland as an active session musician, playing on over 100 CD releases.

Following his long-time admiration for swing music, Dan has emerged as one of the finest exponents of the swing violin.

Co-founder James Hickman, meanwhile, has gained local and national recognition as a singer-songwriter. He is also an accomplished bluegrass flat-picker.

They are joined by Will Barnes, a UK jazz guitarist who has performed with the likes of Gary Potter, Frank Vignola, Alan Barnes and John Etheridge, and Simon Smith (unfortunately without the dancing bear) who is an upright and electric bass player with over 20 years of professional experience recording with many musicians including Stevie Nicks (Fleetwood Mac), Sarah McLachlan and Dave Stewart.

Venue details: Ringstead Shared Church 40 High St, Ringstead, Kettering NN14 4DA. Doors open 7.30pm, start 8pm. Tickets: £12, under 17s £2. More details & tickets from our website: <https://www.raundsfestival.com> or ring the Festival Ticket Hotline 07756 015615.

Sports Injury Relief in Higham

Higham's Ashgrove Clinic is ramping up its focus on sports injuries right now. And apparently walking the dog counts as a sport!

Whether your pain is in the foot, knee, hip or back, The Ashgrove Clinic's sports injury specialists and podiatrist are ready to help you improve your running, walking, cycling and all round sports performance.

"Our athletes include top cyclists, ultra marathon runners, Nordic walkers, triathletes and dog walkers," says sports therapist Jay Sheridan. "You'd think dog walking would be pretty injury-free as a hobby, but we see lots of tight calf muscles, knee problems and ankle pains that all relate to walking the dog!"

The Ashgrove team provide physio rehab for knee replacements, hip replacements and sports injuries, knowing that what you want is to get out of pain, and back to active life again.

Jay says: "Our aim is to stop the pain so you can get back to your favourite activity, or improve your performance and so you can win the race. Sure, we love the normal sprained ankles and the knee injuries, but we also give conditioning and rehab exercise routines to help you get better results."

Pierre, the chartered physiotherapist in the clinic, says: "So many people put up with pain, stiffness and the inability to do activities they love, when they don't need to. My aim is to stop the pain and get you back to having fun again!"

And the team doesn't just treat adults, in fact the clinic has a number of osteopaths who treat children too.

Ashgrove osteopath Georgia Brawn says: "We want kids who are active to stay active. We want them to get back to their sport. And most of them are far better at doing their rehab exercises than their parents are!"

At the clinic you get an individually-tailored treatment (not pages of boring exercises), evening appointments to fit with your many commitments, plus friendly and incredibly experienced practitioners.

Let's hope their efforts pay off and Higham sees some dog walking and marathon champions this year!

13 Lancaster Street, Higham Ferrers, Rushden, Northamptonshire, NN10 8HY

New Mayor for Higham Ferrers

On Monday 13th May, at its Mayor Making Ceremony, Councillor Chris O'Rourke was elected as Mayor for 2019/20 for Higham Ferrers. Councillor Tina Reavey was elected as his Deputy.

Chris O'Rourke said: "It is an honour for me to be elected as your Mayor of Higham Ferrers, a role which as far as I know, has been around for about 700 years.

"I have lived in Higham Ferrers for over 50 years, growing up here along with my nine siblings and parents, firstly on the farm which is now the Queensway estate. I went to the infant and junior schools and for some years worked in the High Street, so I have seen the town grow over the years.

"It promises to be a very busy and exciting year for me, and my Mayoress Kathleen Meredith and we are both looking forward to it.

"This year we have lots of events, with the opening of the Memorial Garden in the Churchyard on 15th June, the Charter Celebration Day on 29th June, the visit of our friends from our twinning town Hachenburg in Germany from 18th-22nd July, as well as a horticultural competition in Chichele Gardens on 14th September. There will also be a community Christmas Carol Concert on the market square on Christmas Eve, organised by the Swivel Club.

"These events, along with our other annual town events, would not be possible without the help and support of all our local groups, who give their time freely working in conjunction with the Town Council to make them successful. That is why I have decided to nominate 'Higham Ferrers Community' as one of my good causes/charities. It is important to me to help those who help our town.

"The other charity I am supporting is the Encephalitis Society, which is a lesser-known national charity.

"Encephalitis is inflammation of the brain caused by infection and can lead to memory loss and epilepsy. It is something both mine and Kathleen's family have suffered with, and my aim is to raise awareness of the condition and how it affects people and their family. For more information visit; <https://www.encephalitis.info/>

"I shall be present at every Farmers' Market to promote events in the town and my own fundraising events. I shall be there to talk to people about any ideas or even concerns they have. I would also like to encourage you to come to Council meetings, as I'm not so sure that everyone realises that they are able to attend."

To contact the Mayor for more information on any events or Council business email mayorhftc19@gmail.com or contact the Town Hall on info@highamferrers-tc.gov.uk

Raynor Winn: The Salt Path

Saturday 22nd June at 7.45pm, St Peter's Church, North Street, Oundle

The remarkable and life-affirming true story of one couple's 630-mile journey around the South West Coast Path. The Salt Path is a beautiful, powerfully honest and deeply moving memoir about overcoming adversity, the redemptive qualities of walking and nature, survival, the meaning of 'home' and above all, love.

In one devastating week, Raynor and her husband Moth lost their home of 20 years, just as a terminal diagnosis threatened to take away their future together. With nowhere else to go, they decided to walk the South West Coast Path: a 630-mile sea-swept trail from Somerset to Dorset, via Devon and Cornwall.

This ancient, wind-battered landscape strips them of every comfort they had previously known. With very little money for food or shelter, Raynor and Moth carry only the essentials for survival on their backs. They live wild in the ancient, weathered landscape of cliffs, sea and sky. Yet through every step, every encounter and every test along the way, their walk becomes a remarkable journey.

The Salt Path is a piece of nature writing in the form of a memoir. Born out of extraordinary circumstances, this book gives insight into one woman's journey that spans not only the entire South West Coast Path but also an emotional journey of redemption. In The Salt Path, Raynor Winn allows us to discover the healing powers found in nature and the simple act of walking forward.

Shortlisted for the Wainwright Golden Beer Book 2018, the book is also a Top Ten Sunday Times Bestseller.

'The Salt Path is a life-affirming tale of enduring love that smells of the sea and tastes of a rich life. With beautiful, immersive writing, it is a story heart-achingly and beautifully told.' Jackie Morris

Tickets £8 (£6), available from the Oundle Box Office, 4 New Street, Oundle. Open hours: 10am-4pm Mon to Fri: Tel 01832 274734, online at www.oundlefestival.org.uk

From the East Northants Chairman

I was delighted to be elected as Chair of East Northamptonshire Council for 2019/20 as I have been a councillor for 13 years and I know what a successful council ENC is. This is illustrated when I visit Stanwick Lakes on a regular basis to get some exercise and I am reminded of its heritage, especially by the Roman mosaic on the mezzanine floor. This is also highlighted when I shop at Rushden Lakes and realise what a convenience this is for residents whilst being a big boost to the local economy and then go to one of my first engagements as Chair to give out prizes at a local women's soft ball competition sponsored by the ENC Community Fund.

I look forward to representing ENC at engagements across the county and beyond, but also going to local events within the district, so please let me know if there is an event going on where you would like my support.

I was a teacher, although they say teachers never retire - just lose their class, so I am especially interested in promoting activities involving young people. I will be holding a dinner dance in aid of my chosen charity at Stanwick Lakes on Friday 27th September and of course I would be delighted if you could join us. My chosen charity is Service Six which does such great work with young people locally, especially those who are in need of support.

I write this on 6th June, very aware that I can do so freely because of the sacrifice made by so many to keep us free and able to enjoy our beautiful district with its parks, pools and of course shopping. I wish you a pleasant summer and look forward to meeting you at as many events as possible.

Unitary programme re-designed to include transformation of services

Following the announcement that two brand new unitary councils will be established in Northamptonshire on 1st April 2021, the eight councils involved have agreed a way forward to deliver a programme that will see better quality service delivery across the county.

A transformation programme has been agreed now that Vesting Day has been set for 2021, allowing time to create much more than just two 'safe and legal' authorities.

In a joint comment, the council leaders of Corby Borough Council (Tom Beattie), Daventry District Council (Chris Millar), East Northamptonshire Council (Steven North), Kettering Borough Council (Russell Roberts), Northampton Borough Council (Jonathan Nunn), Northamptonshire County Council (Matt Golby), South Northamptonshire Council (Cllr Ian McCord) and Borough Council of Wellingborough (Martin Griffiths), said: "Now that Vesting Day is later than originally anticipated, we've revisited our programme and built in transformational work that will ensure we can deliver better integrated services from day one, rather than after the creation of the new councils.

"Sustainability is key to the success of the two new unitary authorities and part of that is creating services that provide what residents need when they need it most and are flexible. We're working with health, the voluntary sector and other key stakeholders to make it easier for residents to access the services they need and make sure the right people are working together to deliver that service.

"The programme will be delivered by a team made up of staff from all eight authorities as well as some external programme management support. A Chief Executive from each current authority will lead each of the projects that make up the programme, making it a plan that is owned and delivered by all Northamptonshire councils."

Among over 30 international awards, Stewart has been awarded a BAFTA, four RTS awards, a Grierson and a Peabody.

Stewart will present a talk 'My Life in Television' on 29th September at the Boat House Meeting Room, Rushden Lakes, 2pm-5pm. Tickets £35, including a glass of sparkling wine and canapés. Tel: 01933 411214.

The vision for the new unitary authorities is set out in a prospectus for change, which can be found at www.east-northamptonshire.gov.uk/prospectusforchange

Community invited to celebrate the Greenway in Rushden

Residents from across the district are invited to join East Northamptonshire Council and the community to celebrate the work that has been completed on the Greenway in Rushden and officially open a new mural. A team of volunteers will also gather beforehand for a morning of litter picking to assist with the continued improvement and the Out to Water, Into History project

From 12noon to 2pm on Sunday 23rd June, a new mural will be unveiled at the Washbrook Road tunnel in Rushden following a competition earlier in the year. Before the ceremony, from 10am to midday, friends of the Greenway will be litter picking along the stretch from Crown Park to Asda in Rushden.

The new mural will be based on local schoolchildren's artwork and has been designed to reflect the history and environment of the local area. The competition also included the creation of three wooden benches along the Greenway featuring quotes from local residents.

Leader of East Northamptonshire Council, Cllr Steven North said: "Our district is full of green spaces and the Greenway is no exception. This event will provide an opportunity for residents and partners to gather and celebrate, whilst continuing to improve the area. The Greenway is all about community and the new mural at the Washbrook Road tunnel will be an excellent addition."

Chairman of the Greenway board, Cllr Sarah Peacock added: "The Greenway is a great area and it is wonderful that we can all gather to celebrate the work that has been achieved since the beginning of this Heritage Lottery funded project. I would also like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who is helping with the regeneration of the area, including litter picking and tree planting, alongside the continued support from our partners Nenescape and Heritage Lottery Funding."

Nenescape Project Manager, Amanda Johnson agreed: "Working with the Out to Water, Into History project has been incredibly rewarding and we are delighted how popular the Greenway is. It's a shame people still drop litter, but it is a wonderful thing to see so many residents volunteering to keep the Greenway clean and the positive changes this has made. Their community spirit is inspiring, and we are grateful for their support."

Also at the event, a new competition will be launched to help choose images that will adorn part of the tunnel. The competition will invite locals to submit photos that showcase the area's history and heritage. If you would like to find out more and get involved contact ENC, or 'like' the Out to Water, Into History Facebook page. Refreshments for all volunteers during the community litter pick will be supplied by Morrisons.

For more information about the event and helping with the litter pick, please contact Lucy Hawes, Community Development Officer at ENC on lhawes@east-northamptonshire.gov.uk or 01832 742268.

Organisations are working together to provide homes for homeless households

The Borough Council of Wellingborough is working with Greatwell Homes (formerly Wellingborough Homes) to provide accommodation for residents facing a housing crisis or who have become homeless.

The partnership will see Greatwell Homes provide homes to be used as temporary accommodation for residents, while the council work with households to assess their needs and find a permanent housing solution.

Previously the council has used emergency hotel accommodation, which does not provide a comfortable housing solution for residents during a difficult time and incurs high costs. As part of the council's 2018-23 housing plan, the council set out to source alternative solutions and the partnership with Greatwell Homes, which launched in April, has made this happen.

Greatwell Homes will work with households to provide benefit advice, financial management skills and signpost to opportunities for training and employment. The council will work with residents to provide holistic support throughout the process by establishing tailor made housing plans and establishing a permanent housing solution.

Leader of the Borough Council of Wellingborough, Cllr Martin Griffiths, said: "We are committed to providing residents with a safe and warm place to call home and the partnership with Greatwell Homes will provide households with comfortable accommodation while our housing team work with them to find a permanent housing solution."

Jo Savage, Chief Executive of Greatwell Homes, commented: "We're delighted to be working with the Borough Council of Wellingborough to support those who are, or will soon, become homeless in the local area. Our skilled staff will also ensure the best benefit advice and financial training is given to these individuals to support them as best as we can."

For more information on the housing assistance and support that the council can provide, call the Housing Options team on: 01933 229777.

For more information about Greatwell Homes, visit www.greatwellhomes.org.uk or call: 01933 234450.

Wildlife News

Seasonal events happen in the countryside so quickly that we cannot rely on the calendar, but must look for the life-cycles of the plants and animals out there, or in our own gardens.

For example, a few days ago we decided that we were on the feeding route of a hedgehog almost every night, until suddenly a second one showed up on the CCTV. Everything suggested that this was a pair, but grey pictures on a monitor are not very helpful even if the two sexes look different. Of course we had to look for a supply of specialised food, remembering that bread-and-milk is at best only an emergency standby.

Summer visitors are now here, sitting on clutches of eggs or even feeding the babies. Early comers, and those with us all year round, get a head start on the feast and young sparrows and starlings have been flying, and 'learning the ropes', for two or three weeks, threatening to take all available space on the feeders or waiting for a gap big enough to squeeze into – no room for good manners!

Young frogs and toads are crawling out of their ponds and setting off into the undergrowth; a dead-looking specimen on a mat of water plant turned out to be a toadlet sunning itself, and after examination it made its way slowly into hiding. Our local reserves help species like newts which need suitable safe spots to keep up their numbers.

Plants show similar patterns of behaviour, but at a steadier pace, covering more months in the year. Yellows and white of early spring give way to deeper reds and oranges to attract help from the insects, but then the plant will feed on nutrients in the soil to produce their seed, just like growth and development in the animal kingdom.

For wildlife this is the busy time of year so don't be surprised if birds stop singing to get on with their jobs. Even the cuckoo, with no domestic chores, will soon be quiet before setting off on its travels to leave us in peace.

Your Health – Which chair is best?

I've been asked by a patient which chair to buy. It's something we get asked a lot when treating people with back, shoulder, wrist and neck pain.

One thing is very clear to me, and I need you to pay attention to this: you cannot rely on a 'good' chair to stop your pain.

You see, we are not designed to sit for hours on end. Our bodies want to move around. They want to walk, run, play and pootle. Some of them even want to walk up and down gardens pushing a lawnmower (personally I'd rather do three marathons up mountains, while carrying a small donkey.)

But, most of us do have to sit for part of the day. When we sit for long periods of time our postural muscles fatigue. And then we slouch in the chair. This is the time when a good chair is important: when you're tired of sitting still, but you're not prepared to get up and move. A good chair will support you when your postural muscles have had enough.

You need a chair that is comfortable, shaped well for your back, adjustable and with arm rests, but not with long arm rests. Long arm rests stop your hands reaching your keyboard.

In my experience gym balls, knee chairs and other strange posture gadgets have their place, but none of them will support you when you're tired. Use the gym ball or wobble cushion for short periods of time to exercise your core, back or buttock muscles. If you're starting to fade then get a proper chair.

Of course the best thing to do is take a rest or Movement Snack. Get up, move around and then get back to work. And no, a sit-on lawnmower does not count as a Movement Snack!

Top tip: A Movement Snack can be something as simple as rolling your shoulders around.

Have snack-filled week!

East Northants Snooker League

Week 2 of the ENSL summer league. As the weather warms up, it would seem that a few of the players have got warmed up too. All three ENSL venues were in action this week, which doesn't happen very often.

The Higham SAS got their chance to play this week after sitting out for the BYE last week. They played the newly formed Windmill A. Adam Burns got the home side off to a dream start by thrashing Dean Coombes 2-0. Adam Underwood was up next, and he played the new arrival David Whitmill. To David's credit, he is settling into competitive snooker very well and he won frame three with Adam hardly potting a ball. Frame four was close all the way, but Adam's experience paid off as he won it on the pink and black. Darren Fenner played Windmill A's captain Sean Britchford. Darren was looking for at least one frame to seal victory for Higham SAS, but Sean played better on the night, winning both frames in a low scoring battle to conclude the match as a 3-3 draw.

Over at Wellingborough Cue Sports, the D team were looking to take down Windmill Warriors. Ricky Johnson played first against Paul Lewis. The balls went awkward in frame one and Lewis was able to lay some tough snookers which helped him to win that frame. In the next frame Ricky showed his frustrations as he missed some easy balls. Paul got in and made a quick 30 break and went on to win that frame as well. Aaron Whittemore played next for Cue Sports D, and his opponent was Michael Dicks. Frame three was close but Dicks took control towards the end of that frame to ensure the win. The next frame was unbelievably close and it looked a certainty for Whittemore, but Dicks hammered home the winning black to win by 1 point. At 4-0 up the away team were delighted. Justin White played last against Richard Wright and he was looking to salvage something for Cue Sports, and that he did. Justin played very well and Richard Wright looked very off-colour. Justin won both frames to grab two consolation points, but the Warriors will still be happy with their consecutive wins.

At the Windmill Club in Rushden, Windmill C played Cue Sports C. As always, Marc Brett stepped up to play first. He played Clive Howe who was making just his second appearance in the ENSL league. Poor Clive did not stand a chance. Marc Brett hit scintillating form as he compiled the current highest break of 76 in frame one and followed up with a 41 break in frame two. Clive potted a few but there simply weren't enough points left after Marc had hoovered them all up. Stewart Brown was next and he played John Sharp. Both men played well and they won a frame each. Similar to the Higham SAS match, the Windmill C were 3-1 up looking for one more frame to seal the win. It was down to James Rawlins to try and beat Luke Clinton. Both of their frames were agonisingly close, but James missed some crucial balls and Clinton won each frame and converted a 3-3 draw at the end.

Windmill Warriors are currently in the top spot thanks to their consecutive wins. Congratulations again to Marc Brett for setting a very impressive high break benchmark so early on in the season.

This week's results:

Windmill C 3-3 Cue Sports C
Cue Sports D 2-4 Windmill Warriors
Higham SAS 3-3 Windmill A Cue Sports B v BYE
