In Brief

Two arrested as cannabis farm raided in Wellingborough

Breck's Last Game wins silver at Cannes

An innovative film produced to raise awareness of online grooming has won a silver award at the Cannes Corporate Media & TV Awards.

Breck's Last Game – a collaboration between Northamptonshire Police, Leicestershire Police, Surrey Police and Essex

Police – was handed the prize on the night of Thursday 26th September. The film, which has received more than 2.3m views since it launched online, has also been shortlisted in the promotional content category at the Royal Television Society awards, which will take place in November.

It is the third award the film has been nominated for, having also been shortlisted in multiple categories of the London Film Awards (21st November).

Breck's Last Game, which was made by Loughborough-based Affixius Films, is just over four minutes long and tells the story of 14-year-old Breck Bednar – an online gamer who was murdered by Lewis Daynes in 2014.

Daynes lured Breck to his flat in Essex. In 2015 he was sentenced to a minimum of 25 years in prison for murder.

Northamptonshire

Police's Assistant Chief Constable James Andronov said: "I'm delighted that Breck's Last Game has been given a silver award at the Cannes Corporate Media & TV Awards.

"It is, without doubt, an innovative, hard-hitting film that has been backed by four forces to help raise awareness of online grooming and keep children safe from harm.

"I would like to thank everyone who was involved in the production of the film for their hard work.

"The interest in Breck's Last Game since its launch – in Northamptonshire and across the world – has been incredible and is a reminder that the exploitation of young people will simply not be tolerated. Offenders will be brought to justice."

Two men have been arrested after a cannabis farm was raided in Wellingborough.

Following the receipt of community intelligence, at around 9.45am on Friday 27th September, officers executed a Misuse of Drugs Act warrant at an address in Mill Road.

When officers from the Wellingborough Neighbourhood Policing Team, supported by a number of volunteer special constables, entered the property they found a quantity of cannabis plants being cultivated in several rooms.

Two men arrested on suspicion of the cultivation of cannabis currently remain in police custody.

Fearless.org campaign launch

Youth service Fearless.org, part of the independent charity Crimestoppers, has launched a new campaign in East Northampton to educate young people about child exploitation, drug, gun and knife crime.

The campaign will run for eight weeks on social media, in schools and across the area. Aimed at 13-19-year-olds and residents, it has two main goals: to educate young people and communities on these crimes and the consequences and, for those who might have information on these offences, to appeal to them to report it via Fearless.org

Crimestoppers Northamptonshire Committee are working with a number of schools to become 'Fearless schools', meaning all pupils and teachers will receive Fearless training and materials during special assemblies. This will ensure they are fully educated about different crimes and are aware of how young people can stay safe and report their concerns 100% anonymously via the Fearless.org site.

Lydia Patsalides, East Midlands Regional

Manager for the charity Crimestoppers, said: "It is our responsibility to keep young people in East Northampton safe. But equally we want to reach out to young people should they have any information on someone who is involved in crime.

"Fearless.org isn't about judging young people, it's about educating them and giving them answers to questions about serious crime they might have. It's also here to take information from them, 100% anonymously, without the fear of any repercussions.

"Our charity has always kept its promise of anonymity to everyone who contacts us."

For further details visit Fearless.org. If you have any information about a crime, you can fill out the untraceable form on the site 100% anonymously.

For more information please contact the Crimestoppers Press Office on 020 8835 3727 or press.office@crimestoppers-uk.org

Genealogy jottings

Archivists, along with librarians, are worth their weight in gold. They are some of the most helpful people on the planet but remember – the important word is help. They are willing to help you find the records that you need; they will help you to work the microfiche reader; they will help you to understand how and where the records are kept; they will help you to complete relevant forms. But they are not miracle workers.

If you approach one and start to tell them all about your great grandfather who was a ringleader of the North Essex Agricultural Labourer's strike of 1914, that he spent two weeks in prison, that you have his prison record and that he was the father of 11 children, not the eight that you first thought until the 1911 census came out, do not be surprised if the archivist's eyes start to glaze over, or they try to get you to the point of what help you need from them.

They also have a lot of work that needs to be done such as answering emails,

Genealogy Specialists, Tracing Our Past, Discovering Our Genes (TOP DOG)

processing document retrievals, arranging tours of the archives, sending items for repair, replying to folk who have offered family items to be stored – to name but a few.

Some archives will offer a research service but you will be expected to pay for this. They might seem expensive – for example, Kent Archives charge £35 per hour with a minimum of £8.75 for 15 minutes – but when you weigh this up against the cost of a day trip from Northamptonshire, it could work out as being more cost-effective. However, if you have access to a computer (if you do not have your own then the Library has a couple) you might wish to join a forum or even Facebook group that has local members who could help you for free.

Editor's notes

There is still no definite news of a start date for work on the repairs to Oundle North Bridge. However, we were able to speak to a member of the project management team at the County Council Highways Department on 2nd October and they, very helpfully, advised that the necessary building consent was expected in the next couple of days. Once that consent is received, there will be a six-week mobilisation period before work starts; then, given reasonable weather and no hiccoughs, the work is expected to take 24 weeks, so by our reckoning that means completion would be around the end of April 2020 at the earliest.

There can be no doubt that this work represents a major undertaking with a wide range of authorities and individuals having to be consulted and perhaps the delay in completing it is only to be expected. You may recall that the earlier estimate was that it would be finished by the end of this year. There has been considerable frustration at the amount of effort that has been required locally to cope with the weight and width restrictions currently imposed on the bridge and we must acknowledge the work done by local people, councillors and MP Tom Pursglove to ensure that this matter was addressed and hopefully resolved. Perhaps we will soon be able to turn our thoughts to the form of the grand re-opening ceremony next spring!

There has been a deal of comment recently about the charges levied by East Northamptonshire Council (ENC) for the collection of garden waste. They are the second highest in the region at £55 per household per year on top of Council Tax for fortnightly green waste collections. Critics say the charge unfairly punishes gardeners. The Council is one of just two authorities in Northamptonshire to impose a charge for the service, with garden waste collections free in Kettering, Corby, Wellingborough, Northampton and South Northamptonshire; Daventry is the only other district in the county where residents must pay an annual fee but there it's only £36. An ENC spokesman said: "If more residents subscribed to the service it would enable ENC to review the overall costs and the price to the resident. ENC's service is subscription-based, so is a cost to those who wish to pay it."

The gardeners' view was expressed by Anthony O'Sullivan, Managing Director of the Gardeners Club, who said: "UK gardeners are increasingly being punished with a quiet green-garden tax which seems to go against every other positive environmental initiative that the UK is trying to promote." Do you use the service and if so do you begrudge paying for it, or do you accept that it's money well spent in the face of growing demands on local authority resources?

Sixth Nene Valley Festival is a success

Thousands of people turned out to enjoy the masses of activities on offer during this year's Nene Valley Festival, which took place from Saturday 14th to Sunday 22nd September and was funded by Heritage Lottery through Nenescape.

The festival offered something for the whole family with hundreds of events and attractions across the Nene Valley and officially launched with a ribbon cutting ceremony in Peterborough on 14th September.

After the Chair of Destination Nene Valley, Andrew Langley, and Chairman of East Northamptonshire Council Cllr Dudley Hughes had cut the ribbon, there was a huge range of activities including children's face painting, medieval purse making and coin striking which were enjoyed by thousands of visitors.

Cllr Sarah Peacock, East Northamptonshire Councillor and board member for the Destination Nene Valley project said about the festival: "From culture to nature and everything in between, this year's festival really highlighted the variety of activities on offer and the wonderful towns and villages, country parks and architecture along the Nene Valley.

"We were delighted that the sun shone in Peterborough for our official opening ceremony and throughout the festival, especially after our finale event last year was cancelled due to the weather."

This year's festival highlights included a Heritage Family Fun Day at Rushden Lakes, Food and Drink Festival at Barnwell Country Park and Cyclefest at Stanwick Lakes.

To round off a fun-filled week of activities, the local community and visitors turned out for the 'Come and Meet the Settlers' event at Stanwick Lakes on Sunday 22nd September.

The annual festival was celebrating its sixth year and is delivered through the Destination Nene Valley project. The project aims to promote the Nene Valley as a competitive, sustainable destination offering wildlife and heritage to local, national and international audiences.

Nenescape Project Manager, Amanda Johnson said: "We are so happy that people of all ages joined us to help celebrate everything the Nene Valley has to offer.

"The festival offered a wide range of activities, with something for everyone and we hope that residents and visitors have been inspired and continue to connect with the heritage of the Nene Valley."

The festival is one of the key highlights within the Destination Nene Valley project that works in partnership with organisations along the River Nene including local authorities across Northamptonshire, the Environment Agency and Nenescape.

Bishop opens Woodford CE Primary School's new outdoor classroom

Bishop John from Brixworth was given a warm welcome by the pupils and staff of Woodford CE Primary children as he opened their new outdoor classroom. The children had produced bunting which depicted the Christian symbols and they had written what the school motto of 'Shine Among Them like Stars in the Sky' means to them. Examples included 'to be kind' 'to work together' 'to work as hard as possible'.

The Bishop, dressed in his full vestments, showed the children what he wore and explained the meaning of his clothing. He opened and blessed the classroom which will be used for a range of lessons, a place to read and a quiet space to reflect.

Kristel Murphy, Associate Principal said: "The classroom is already being well used and another example of the investment being made in the school." The school has recorded very good SATs results this year and is going from strength to strength under its new leadership as part of the Nene Education Trust.

Volunteer Action

Volunteer Action were delighted to welcome older members of our community to our August Tea parties recently. These were held at The Hub café at Fletton House, supported by Oundle Town Council.

Week one saw Volunteer Action driver and trustee, Colin Pendrill give a lively and amusing talk on Richard III and the Leicester car park. Yes, really! For week two we welcomed a group of young people from the Baptist church group Chattabox, who brought Ludo, cards, dominoes and other games and who were, of course, beaten hands down by the experience and guile of our older guests! The intrepid group who came in week three were subjected to a taster for chair-based exercise designed especially for people in their age group by Freedom Leisure. In fact, rather than being 'subjected to' this, it turns out it was very enjoyable and many people signed up for a continuing course. Our final week saw us all taking part in a lovely musical programme, with Douglas Butler on the keyboard and accordion and Jack Duckworth leading the singing and providing a few songs of his own. Tea and homemade cakes were enjoyed every week.

Volunteer Action would like to acknowledge the financial contribution of The Evergreen Club and the Benham Charitable Trust who made this possible. We are also very grateful to all our supporters mentioned above who made each week so different, most of whom volunteered their time.

Volunteer Action cannot run without the dedicated volunteers who drive for us every week, provide our befriending service and support the office. If you think you can help in any way with your time or a financial contribution or think these services would be valuable to you and would like to sign up as a member, please call 01832 275433 and we would be delighted to speak to you.

Keith Davis celebrates 60 years with Bulley Davey

This year Keith Davis, Senior Manager at Bulley Davey's Oundle office is celebrating 60 years with the firm, having joined in 1959.

Keith joined the company under the management of founder Maurice Bulley – and has worked across the Peterborough and Oundle offices, as well as a former office in Thrapston. He says: "Of course much has changed over the years with Bulley Davey, technology being the biggest and most obvious change to the way we work. It's made things much quicker!

"What hasn't changed is Bulley Davey's commitment to the client – and putting clients at the forefront of our thinking – acting in their interest and providing a personalised service."

Keith specialises in the accounting and taxation affairs of sole traders and partnerships, and some of his clients have dealt with him for most of his 60 years at the firm. "I'm very lucky to have some clients who have worked with me for much of my time with Bulley Davey, especially here at Oundle. Many of them are friends, as much as they are clients."

We want to thank Keith for his incredible service for the company to date and look forward to many more years to come!

Nene Valley Crematorium celebrates the official opening of a new memorial garden

A memorial garden at Nene Valley Crematorium, Wellingborough, was officially opened by the Mayor of Wellingborough, Cllr Jo Beirne, at a dedicated event on Thursday 19th September.

Wellingborough Council and Nene Valley Crematorium are dedicated to providing a welcoming and peaceful facility for visitors and are delighted to officially open the Wendelburie Garden.

The Wendelburie memorial garden is home to a niche wall that contains above ground vaults where family and friends can securely place ashes and sentimental items. The garden has been created to support the vision to provide individual themed gardens within the Crematorium's Garden of Remembrance.

This second garden was created to complement its first – the Anniversary Garden – and the event commemorated both gardens and the comforting place they provide for visitors.

The Mayor of Wellingborough, Cllr Jo Beirne, said: "The memorial gardens will provide visitors with a peaceful space to spend time in and reflect, at what can often be a difficult and challenging time and I am honoured to officially unveil this beautiful space."

Crematorium Manager, Tracy Lawrence said: "We are delighted to be working with the council to provide a memorial wall and remembrance garden for our visitors, and we're honoured that the Mayor of Wellingborough, Cllr Jo Beirne, officially opened this new facility.

"It is widely recognised how important it is to provide bereaved people with a focal place to visit and reflect, with a facility for the leaving of flowers also being significantly important. The vision for the Garden of Remembrance is to provide memorial gardens to visit for quiet reflection and for those wishing to commemorate loved ones in a place of peace and tranquillity.

For more information about selecting a final resting place for a loved one's ashes and/or how to commemorate through memorisation please contact a team member on 01933 229660 or email enquiries@nenevalleycrematorium.co.uk

Oundle pupil represents England at the Netball Europe Open Championships

Oundle School is delighted to congratulate Upper Sixth Former and Head Girl Sienna Rushton, who was selected to represent England at the Netball Europe Open Championships.

The competition was held from 27th to 29th September at the Antrim Forum in Belfast and saw the England side face the Republic of Ireland, Northern Ireland and Wales on court. The England side were led by England Netball Futures Head Coach Sam Bird, alongside Emily Perry as Assistant Coach.

Sienna commented: "I feel honoured to be able to represent the country at a senior level for a sport which I love. It goes without saying that I could not have gotten this far without the help of the school, family and friends. What I really love is the camaraderie of being part of a team, especially amongst a bunch of such lovely and hardworking girls. Being at a full-time boarding school can make training a challenge but the School has always made it as easy as possible. It is a dream come true."

Head of Netball, Beverley Burnham commented: "It is very rare for a coach to meet an athlete and instantly know they will wear the Red Dress, however that is exactly how I felt when I met Sienna at just 11 years old. Sienna has a phenomenal work ethic which has been evident both on court and throughout her school career. She is an inspiration to others, not least the U14 Oundle School team which she helped through to the National Schools netball finals. I look forward to seeing Sienna in the England senior squad for many years to come."

Horticultural happiness

Everyone was very excited by the return of the Higham Horticultural Show which was held on Saturday 14th September at Chichele College. This was the first show for over 50 years with the last being held at Higham Ferrers Working Men's Club in the 1960s.

There were almost 200 entries across a range of categories – flowers, fruit, vegetables, floral art, baking and children's classes – set out among Union Jacks and bunting. Competitors of all ages entered into the spirit of the event. One lady of 75, Diane, said that she had "never done anything like this before in my life," and proceeded to win a First for her beautiful Bramley apples.

The winner of the Best in Show receiving the Mayor's Cup was Mike Groom for his incredibly perfect carrots.

Higham Ferrers Tourism wanted to recreate the ambience of the show held in 1943 at The Chequers Public House (once located where the present-day Coop now stands) where money raised was given to servicemen when they returned home on leave during the Second World War. Fruit, vegetables, celebration cakes and floral displays donated at this year's show were raffled as prizes, with cakes and cut flowers taken to the Shrubbery for residents to enjoy and preserves sold at the Heritage Family Fun Day at Rushden Lakes. Money raised by the raffle and sale of jams supported the Mayor's chosen charities.

Chichele College, a Scheduled Monument, was the perfect venue keeping the produce fresh and cool, ensuring that they looked their best for the many visitors who enjoyed free entry to this treasured building on a beautiful sunny day.

"A Great show! Please let's have another next year." "Brilliant – thank you." "Excellent – please have the show again." "Looks a treat!" Just some of the wonderful comments left by visitors to the show. A very special visitor, Mary, whose father was responsible for the show in The Chequers was delighted and exclaimed that "My father would have loved it".

The organisers wish to thank all those who supported this new venture. Encouraged by the warm and positive comments from visitors they are now planning another show for next year.

News from the ENC Chairman

The sun shone in the square in Peterborough for the opening of the Nene Valley Festival. Accompanied by guards with the cross of St George and steel helmets, a stilt walker and a juggler, the Anglo Saxon 'peasant' supplied the knife for me to cut the ribbon at the start of a great week of events, culminating in the re-enactment by Vikings displaying their skills at Stanwick Lakes.

Higham Ferrers saw two events for us that week: the Civic Service in the magnificent church and the opening by the Lord Lieutenant of the extension to SERVE's Ron Manning Day and Activity Centre, which provides such great activities for older residents, supporting their independence.

Northampton's Civic Service was another splendid occasion with great music from the choir. Anyone can attend these services and are very welcome, often with tea and cake to follow. We are fortunate to have such historic buildings in Northamptonshire as the beautiful church and the remains of the castle in Northampton, where the trial took place of Saint Thomas Becket in 1164; he subsequently escaped but was murdered in Canterbury Cathedral in 1170.

Whittlebury Hall was the venue for a special dinner held by the 501st Combat Wing of the United States Air Force to celebrate the 70th Anniversary of NATO and the 72nd birthday of the American Air Force. These dinners are formal and recognise the special relationship between the UK and USA and always show the courtesy of the British National Anthem being played first.

It is always a pleasure to see facilities which have been made possible by grants from

ENC. Opening the new playground at King's Cliffe was an especially good occasion and a testimony to all the hard work and time put in by volunteers which are essential to make these projects successful.

I was pleased to attend a hog roast to thank the volunteers who made the Nene Valley Festival such a success, again a project made possible by the volunteers who work to promote our district.

An invitation to design the Chair of ENC's Christmas card

Artists and designers of all ages are invited to submit a design for this year's East Northamptonshire Council Chairman's Christmas card, which is sent to a wide range of people.

Designs should reflect the true meaning of Christmas, both its origin and what it means today, whilst relating to East

Northamptonshire and all designs will be judged by a panel from East Northamptonshire Council.

The design should be A5, either landscape or portrait, could be a painting, collage or photo and should stand out.

Please send entries to chairman@east-northamptonshire.gov.uk by Friday 18th

October and please include the name of the artist, email address and phone number.

I look forward to seeing the entries and using the winning design to send out proudly as my Christmas card.

Gold Anchor awards for White Mills Marina

White Mills Marina situated on the River Nene in Earls Barton, Northamptonshire has been awarded four Gold Anchors by The Yacht Harbour Association (TYHA), and owners of the marina John and Debbie Skinner were presented with the prestigious award at the recent Southampton Boat Show.

The accreditation comes just three years after the family run business opened in April 2016 and has given the entire White Mills team a real confidence boost. The marina now knows that it is operating at a recognised industry standard. The Yacht Harbour Association has been auditing marinas for 25 years and is well known as a credible measure of marina quality.

Jon White, General Manager of The Yacht Harbour Association commented: "John and Debbie have worked incredibly hard to establish White Mills Marina and we are absolutely delighted to have awarded them the four Gold Anchors they were so keen to achieve."

John Skinner said: "Progressing White Mills Marina to become a four Gold Anchor marina has been a team effort all round, and needless to say we are incredibly proud of our team and thrilled to have achieved this recognised industry standard."

Situated on Lock 9, White Mills Marina has become a must visit marina for boaters cruising the River Nene. Not only can they access the popular Boathouse café overlooking the marina, fill up with water, diesel, gas, coal, logs and use the pump out facilities but they can also join the Friends of the River Nene.

With 141 berths, White Mills is currently enjoying 85% occupancy, and has six dedicated visitor moorings for short-term/overnight visitors, or those boaters wanting longer-term winter moorings.

The recent addition of a certificated Camping and Caravanning Club Site with electric hook-up has proved hugely popular for campers visiting Northamptonshire and has now become an integral part of the White Mills Marina business.

Wildlife News

The recent Nene Valley Festival, featuring towns, villages and countryside from Northampton down river to Peterborough, reminded us that humans and wildlife do not always agree. It came at a time of increasing pressure to look after our environment; poster campaigns and TV wildlife documentaries have led now to mass demonstrations by people of all ages.

This interest comes as our wildlife follows its normal pattern. Animals which can travel to other countries, such as birds and insects, have completed the late-year migration which for some started way back in late July and August (e.g. cuckoos), while we have gained winter migrants in their place; some species 'disappear' because it is time for the long sleep we call 'hibernation'.

So we do not always see the animals or plants which live in the area – but they are still there, and we must give them the best conditions possible.

Our own district is a top example of conservation. Many readers may not remember the days before Higham Ferrers, Rushden or Wellingborough spread to their present size, or before Irthlingborough Lakes and similar developments took over open fields and discovered the deposits of gravel and iron ore to be dug out. These drastic (for the plants and animals living there) alterations to the environment obliterated the old environment of fields and allotments; every species could have died out in the locality, leaving a literally barren patch. We know that nature would soon have taken steps to cover up the gaps, but the chance was taken to manage the changes and influence nature by providing help not simply by putting in suitable plants, but also by moulding the surroundings to help incoming residents. The effect of this "interference" is now seen in the string of lakes and lagoons making up the Nene Wetlands.

Providing the right framework is just the start. All conservation projects aim to provide what the wildlife wants, so they come voluntarily to get what they need. Preservation is everyone's responsibility, so we must protect what we have 'on our own doorstep', for that paper or plastic bag, or empty bottle, can seriously damage what the Nene has to offer in return.

Another sell-out annual concert for male voice choir

On 28th September, Northampton Male Voice Choir (NMVC) under its Musical Director, Stephen Bell, together with special guests, Soprano, Emily Haig and the GUS brass band, presented its 2019 Annual Concert to a capacity audience of 525 at Northampton High School, Hardingstone. The choir's 2018 Annual Concert was also a sell-out, which is testament to its popularity and ability to entertain audiences.

After a scintillating first half, which included a brand new selection of songs from the 75 men in the choir, the excited audience was treated to a rousing Last Night of the Proms style second half led by Emily Haig, complete with Union Jack flags and hats, red, white and blue balloons and enthusiastic audience participation climaxing with a rousing rendition of 'Land of Hope and Glory' followed by a lengthy standing ovation from the highly appreciative audience.

The Annual Concert ended a busy summer for the choir which included a brief tour to Kent with concerts in Rochester Cathedral, Faversham, Sandwich and an open air concert on Whitstable Harbour where, in the space of an hour, the choir raised nearly £300 for RNLI Whitstable Lifeboat Station.

A helping hand to keep homes warm in East Northamptonshire

Hundreds of fuel poor and vulnerable households in East Northamptonshire are set to receive a helping hand from the Warm Homes Fund.

East Northamptonshire Council, on behalf of the Northants Warm Homes partnership, has secured nearly £4 million to provide fully-funded central heating for homes that don't already have it.

The money will be matched by other grant monies and by contributions from landlords and local authorities to ensure that eligible homes won't need to pay a penny.

Those households eligible for the Warm Homes Fund are those most in need of support, including people on a low income that have high energy bills, and who are vulnerable to the cold because of health conditions. Both owner-occupiers and private tenants can apply, and tenants will need the permission of their landlord.

Leader of East Northamptonshire Council, Cllr Steven North, said: "With the colder months just around the corner, we are proud to be part of a scheme that will help residents across East Northamptonshire stay warm. This initiative is a perfect example of public and private sector agencies coming together to make a real difference to people's lives.

"We have already heard stories of how the Warm Homes Fund has helped people and hope that there will be similar successes in our District. I encourage everyone to find out more about the scheme and check to see if they are eligible."

The Warm Homes Fund scheme will run until 2021 and fit efficient gas central heating in around 1,400 fuel-poor homes across Northants, and is being run by Surefire Management Services (SMS) on behalf of all the local authorities. Nationally, the Warm Homes Fund has been established by National Grid and is administered by Affordable Warmth Solutions.

Gearoid Lane, Director of SMS said: "We are delighted to be working with East Northamptonshire Council and other partners to deliver fully-funded central heating to homes in Northants.

In the many areas across Britain where the fund is already operating, residents have been very positive about the support they have received. It will make a huge difference in helping people on low incomes to heat their homes effectively."

Jeremy Nesbitt, Managing Director of Affordable Warmth Solutions, said: "We are excited about this investment from National Grid and are delighted to support East Northamptonshire Council to fund the scheme to address fuel poverty."

"Solving the issues associated with Fuel Poverty continues to challenge many of our stakeholders and the feedback we've already received provides evidence of how the Warm Homes Fund will make a positive difference to thousands of homes throughout Great Britain."

Remember, remember last 4th of November!

Nearly 3,000 people enjoyed our fireworks, food and spooky fun. Money was raised to help keep Barnwell Hall in tip top condition. Just under 50 volunteers made all this possible by giving their time, expertise and general jollity.

This year an even more ambitious themed bonfire is planned along with the tried and tested favourites. We hope you will again support us and spread the word.

The gates of our free car park in Barnwell recreation field open at 5pm. A short walk will take you through the village to the hall field where you will find music, traditional drinks, top quality food and the bonfire like no other. The theme of this year's bonfire is a closely guarded secret but we can tell you that it celebrates an exciting historical event. The fire will be lit, in style, at 6:30pm and a spectacular, professional firework display will follow. We are planning a very different display on 3rd Nov. But still full of full of gunpowder, treason and plot, it will be another night not easily forgot!

David Brown (For the bonfire village hall subcommittee)

All support through the Warm Homes Fund scheme is subject to the eligibility criteria. To find out more go to www.northantswarmhomes.com or call freephone 0800 038 5737. All visits will be by appointment only and assessors will carry photo ID.

Rare birds visit the Nene Valley this winter

An array of rare birds will return to the Nene Valley this winter to find warmth and food at the internationally important wetland areas that run from Northampton to Thrapston, known as the Upper Nene Valley Gravel Pits Special Protection Area (SPA).

As part of a campaign to raise awareness of the importance of this area, East Northamptonshire, Northamptonshire County and Wellingborough Councils, helped by the National Lottery Heritage Fund-supported Nenescape Landscape, are working with Natural England and The Wildlife Trust for Beds, Cambs and Northants.

More than 20,000 birds, many of which are facing declines, flock to the shorelines from October to March and residents are being urged to admire the birds from designated view points, and ensure that their dogs are kept on the lead and away from birds in the water.

The habitats provide valuable resting and feeding conditions for major concentrations of wintering waterbirds, especially ducks and waders. Partners that look after the area want to ensure that this remains a great place for everyone to appreciate.

Dog walkers, cyclists and runners can unintentionally disturb the birds meaning they might not visit suitable areas of the SPA again, or be able to eat enough to survive.

Here are a few ways you can help make this an area for birds and people to enjoy:

- Stay on existing pathways and viewing areas to prevent disturbance
- Look out for birds resting or feeding and move away if birds become alert or stop feeding
- Cycle on the specially designed greenway route
- Keep dogs on leads
- Clean up after your dog
- Exercise dogs away from the birds
- Fish in the designated areas only

You can also visit the many country parks situated outside of the SPA, such as Fermyn Woods, Barnwell and Irchester Country Parks. For information on country parks near you, visit www.northamptonshireparks.co.uk

Enjoy the wildlife of the Upper Nene Valley Gravel Pits Special Protection Area (SPA), see how many of our top winter visitors you can spot and tell your family and friends about the importance of the Nene Valley. For more information visit www.nenevalley.net/spa

News from Higham Ferrers

Over the last few weeks the Mayor of Higham Ferrers, Cllr Chris O'Rourke, has been busy attending many events, including the Classic Car Show, Civic Services for local Mayors and Chairmen, concerts, dances and the opening of the new SERVE conservatory at the Ron Manning Centre.

On Saturday 14th September the Mayor and Mayoress attended the Horticultural Show at Chichele College run by the Higham Ferrers Tourism Group. The Mayor donated a trophy which was then awarded to the 'Best in Show' – a prize won by Mr Groom for his carrots. The Tourism group very kindly donated the proceeds of the event to the Mayor's Charities.

On Sunday 15th September the Mayor held his Civic Service at St Mary's Church in Higham Ferrers. Civic guests joined a procession from the Town Hall to the church before enjoying the service and a reception afterwards at the Bede House. The service was well attended and the Mayor was delighted that so many local groups and dignitaries joined him. Some said the procession was the longest they had seen!

The Mayor's next fundraiser is a Legends Show by Marshall King – a fantastic night of comedy and music. Tickets and info available now from the Higham Ferrers Town Hall or email info@highamferrers-tc.gov.uk

Official opening of Wellingborough's first all-weather 3G pitch

Local sports clubs and representatives from Wellingborough Council, Places Leisure and the Football Federation celebrated the official opening of Wellingborough's first 3G pitch at Redwell Leisure Centre on Friday 13th September.

The Leader and Deputy Leader of the Council, Cllr Martin Griffiths and Cllr Tom Partridge-Underwood, Ward Councillors, Cllr Jon-Paul Carr and Cllr Malcolm Waters marked the opening of the 3G pitch with a ribbon cutting ceremony, followed by a walking football showcase put on by players from across the county and AFC Rushden & Diamonds girls playing inter-club matches and training.

The pitch will enable sports clubs to train all year round and has been made possible thanks to funding granted by the Premier League, The FA and Government, through their charity, the Football Foundation. It is operated by Places Leisure on behalf of the Council, and is available to book 9am-9pm during the week, 9am-8pm Saturdays and 9am-4pm Sundays.

Quintin Allen, Sports Project Manager at Northamptonshire Sport who led the bid on behalf of the council said: "This facility is crucial to enhancing the sporting offer for residents of the borough and I would like to thank all the organisations involved in enabling the concept to be realised, specifically our funding partners and facilitators the Premier League, The FA and Government funding through the Football Foundation, and of course the Borough Council of Wellingborough."

Cllr Martin Griffiths, Leader of the Borough Council of Wellingborough, added: "I am delighted that the borough's first all-weather outdoor pitch is now open for local sports clubs and residents of all ages and abilities to enjoy. It was fantastic to see a number of different sports clubs and our fellow partners join us for the official opening event."

Simon Churchman, Contracts Manager at Places Leisure, commented: "At Places for People Leisure we're extremely passionate about helping local communities stay physically active and emotionally engaged in fitness, sport and well-being. I believe the new and exciting addition of the 3G pitch at Redwell Leisure Centre will be an extremely positive asset to achieving this for the people of Wellingborough."

Paul Thorogood, Chief Executive of the Football Foundation, said: "The support of the Premier League, The FA and government enables the Football Foundation to help improve community sports facilities like this one across the country. Their funding has played a key role in delivering this new all-weather pitch in Northamptonshire and I am delighted for everyone associated with the Borough Council of Wellingborough.

"This is one example we want to make people in Northamptonshire aware of that they have the kind of quality pitches and changing rooms that are taken for granted in other cities. We will continue to support projects nationwide, but we cannot do this on our own, so we are encouraging organisations in the area to join our movement to deliver quality football facilities for people in Northamptonshire once and for all.

"Taking part in community sport at any level offers many benefits and rewards, not least the opportunity for people to enjoy themselves and socialise with different members of the community."

Solid silver for RE at Oundle Primary

Oundle Church of England Primary School is celebrating after being awarded a prestigious prize for its provision of Religious Education.

The award of a silver mark by the Religious Education Council of England and Wales has been made in recognition of superb practice in the teaching and learning of the subject.

The Council commended the school for its determination to place RE as a core subject alongside maths and English.

The judging panel said: "RE has always had a high profile at Oundle... with some pupils exceeding expectations. There is a commitment to a programme of visits and visitors for pupils. There is good support for the RE subject leader and continuous professional development for all staff from the headteacher and the Church Task Group, from the governing body as well as the diocese."

"We are so pleased to receive this award and I want to pass on my thanks to our teaching team for their hard work and commitment," commented Oundle Primary's headteacher Mrs Janet McMurdo. "As a church school, our children are learning about world religions within a Christian context and so this award is a natural extension of our ethos."

New sports kit for Cranford Primary School

It was a very exciting day for the pupils at Cranford CE Primary School on Friday 20th September. During their weekly Celebration Assembly, they were visited by Lisa Culshaw and Scott Pointon from Marval Software, who presented the children with a brand new sports kit.

Marval provided the kit following a request for sponsorship from the school. Lisa, who has a child in the school, is Managing Director of Marval, a global provider of IT service management software headquartered in Kettering.

The pupils were delighted with the new kit which was modelled by a few of the children. William, who has represented the school in a range of events, said: "I really like the new kit – it looks great. I really enjoy representing the school and the opportunities that we are given."

Headteacher Richard Albert said his aim for the year is for every child to have the opportunity to represent the school at an inter-school sports event. "This fantastic kit will make our pupils feel immensely proud every time they put it on," he said. "We can't thank Marval enough for their wonderful donation."

The school has another kit launch coming soon, this time for their younger children.

East Northants 'Beat the Street' runners-up donate prize to benefit local school pupils

East Northamptonshire turned into a giant game in spring, with more than 8,262 residents tapping 'beat boxes' around the district, clocking up 73,373 miles.

More than 11 community teams entered the game, delivered by East Northamptonshire Council, Freedom Leisure and Intelligent Health, with three teams receiving prizes for their efforts.

The Rushden Walking for Health Group scooped the accolade of second place but decided that the £200 decathlon voucher could benefit more people if they donated this prize to the Wellingborough and East Northants School Sport Partnership.

The partnership is delivered by Northamptonshire Sport and works with schools across the area to enhance the quality and range of sporting opportunities available for young people.

Ed Reeves, School Sport Manager for Northamptonshire Sport and managing the Wellingborough and East Northants School Sport Partnership (WAEN SSP), said: "I am delighted to have accepted a £200 voucher. Working very closely with the Rushden and Higham schools, I will be purchasing equipment with the voucher that will educate and enhance the sporting/physical activity experience of many children.

"My sincere thanks go to all the walking group members for their hard work and for their very kind donation to Northamptonshire Sport and WAEN SSP."

Steven North, Leader of East Northamptonshire Council, said: "A number of fantastic community groups took part in the Beat the Street game, pounding the pavement to clock up points for their organisation.

"It is great news to hear that Rushden Walking for Health have so selflessly donated their prize to benefit local pupils.

"I hope that the children are able to enjoy many hours of physical activity thanks to the new equipment that will be purchased with the voucher." Rushden Walking for Health meet every Friday at Rushden Hall Park at 10am by the flagpole – everyone is welcome. The walk is free and refreshments are available at the Hall afterwards.

Manor School state-of-the-art Sixth Form Centre officially opened Manor School's new Sixth Form Centre was opened on Friday 27th September by Tom Pursglove MP. The state-of-the-art facility provides all of the essentials required for 21st century study... and much more. The renovation provides a dedicated workspace for up to 200 sixth formers, preparing Manor School for continued growth in the coming years.

The upgrading of the Sixth Form Centre at Manor School Sports College, as well as the other projects undertaken to improve facilities in the school in the past year, is central to the School's ethos of raising aspirations for pupils and their families.

Principal Jay Davenport, said: "Today represents the exciting conclusion of the first phase of our vision for the development of the school environment at Manor School. Our students deserve the very best and this Sixth Form Centre is part of ensuring the facilities reflect the excellent quality of teaching and pastoral care that students at Manor School receive."

Growth is impossible without space, that's why Nene Education Trust (NET), have invested in the construction of new provision across the Manor School site. Chris Hill, Chief Executive of the Nene Education Trust, said: "At the Nene Education Trust we aim to invest continually in all our schools to provide students and staff with a fantastic environment that supports the high quality of teaching already on offer. Our aim is to make Manor School the Sixth Form of choice in the local area. I encourage any young person considering their post-16 choices to come and see for themselves."

Accompanying Mr Pursglove, Mr Hill and Mr Davenport at the opening ceremony were architect, Kate Westwood from Peter Smith Associates and Paul Hutchinson from the building contractor, RG Carter. Mr Hutchinson said: "We are delighted to be delivering this essential work required at Manor School, which will provide staff and students with exceptional facilities, which will benefit the community for many years to come."

Help name our gritting fleet!

As Northamptonshire County Council makes preparations to deal with wintry weather over the coming months, the authority is giving people the chance to name each of the 22 gritting lorries that will be keeping our roads safe – with the winning entries printed onto the front of the trucks.

The competition runs until Friday 11th October and is open to schools, classes or individuals. The winning names will be painted onto the gritters.

In Northamptonshire a total of 1,157 miles of road receives precautionary gritting – almost the same distance as that between

London and Rome. This service is carried out by Northamptonshire Highways.

Cllr Jason Smithers, County Council Cabinet

Member for Highways and Place, said: "Keeping the county moving over the winter months is a huge task. There's never any telling just what sort of winter we're going to get – we just have to be ready to tackle what nature throws at us.

"The gritting team do a tremendous job keeping the county moving during the winter, with 24-hour monitoring between the months of October and April."

Entries should be emailed to rmiller@kierwsp.co.uk or tweet @nnhighways and include:

- A suggested name of the gritter
- Applicant's name
- Applicant's contact details
- Be clean, original and creative

About the gritting service

The weather during the period from mid-October to mid-April is monitored by Northamptonshire Highways, and the county's roads are salted, when required, subject to the weather conditions.

Weather forecasts are received from the Meteogroup and local knowledge of the network is used to work out what the likelihood of frost or snow is.

If necessary, the situation will be monitored on an hour-by-hour basis before making decisions to send crews out to salt the roads. There are also seven weather stations so that road conditions can be monitored.

Northamptonshire Highways plan the service to ensure villages are linked to priority routes.

A total length of approximately 1,157 miles of road receives precautionary salting, just under half of the total network in the county.

Priority is given to those roads carrying the highest volume of traffic and where the risk of accidents is greatest.

In addition, certain local roads such as those serving industrial areas, shopping centres and some key roads in towns and rural areas are also salted.

In prolonged, adverse weather conditions, that is where the forecast conditions are unlikely to improve for at least 48 hours and the temperature is not expected to rise above freezing within that period, an additional 359 miles of roads will be treated provided that roads on the precautionary salting network do not require treatment.

In the event of snowfall, roads will be cleared according to their priority status and need.

Gritting updates are available at @NNhighways.
