In Brief

Northamptonshire Federation of WIs – AGM

At this year's keynote event guest speaker Baroness Floella Benjamin received a standing ovation following her inspirational talk. Her key points were consideration, contentment, confidence and the courage to stand up for what is right.

Members came from all over the county – from Oundle in the north, Brackley in the south, Daventry in the east and Raunds in the west, with many others in between – to meet in Spinney Theatre in Northampton.

Cranford WI were thrilled to receive the Challenge Trophy 2019 which was to 'Plan a Stress-Free Sensory Garden'.

Joan Herrick of Sywell & Overstone WI received the Pauline Duff Trophy 2019 which was to 'Design and Make an Evening Bag'.

A glittering array of invited guests included Wilson Browne Solicitors, who kindly sponsored this event, for which the Federation are grateful.

A truly memorable AGM. For further information contact 01604 646055 admin@ncfwi.org.uk

Author event: A Woman of No Importance

Wednesday 4th December at 7.45pm, St Peter's Church, North Street, Oundle PE84AL

Sonia Purnell's new book tells a remarkable true story of female heroism in WWII. It explores how the most unlikely of spies defied all the odds to triumph over the Gestapo – how one woman broke through convention and prejudice to save Allied intelligence in France.

In 1942, the Gestapo would stop at nothing to track down a mysterious 'limping lady' who was fighting for the freedom of France. The Nazi chiefs issued a simple but urgent command: 'She is the most dangerous of all Allied spies. We must find and destroy her.'

Their target was Virginia Hall, a glamorous American with a wooden leg who broke through the barriers against her gender and disability to be the first woman to infiltrate Vichy France for the SOE. In so doing she helped turn the course of the intelligence war.

Virginia recruited a brothel madam and a VD doctor as her lieutenants, directed teachers and farmers to blow up bridges and ambush enemy convoys, rescued numerous secret agents in some of the most daredevil jail breaks of the war, and brought in dozens of parachute drops of arms and explosives. Betrayed by a priest, her face was plastered across Wanted posters in the whole of France but she refused to evacuate, eluding the Nazis until she finally escaped in a death-defying crossing through the winter snows of the Pyrenees.

This is the epic tale of an heiress who determined that a hunting accident would not define her existence; a young woman who gambled her life to fight for the freedoms she believed in; an espionage novice who helped to light the flame of French Resistance.

Based on years of painstaking research and the release of previously secret sources, the incomparable story of Virginia Hall reveals how she confounded her detractors to become one of the greatest Allied agents of the war and an inspiration to her successors in the field to this day.

Sonia Purnell is a biographer and journalist who has worked for The Economist, Daily Telegraph, and Sunday Times. Her book First Lady: The Life and Wars of Clementine Churchill was shortlisted for the Plutarch Award for Best Biography. Her first book, Just Boris: A Tale of Blond Ambition, was longlisted for the Orwell prize.

Rushden Christmas Lights Switch-on Saturday 30th November from 11:45am to Lights Switch-on at 4:30pm.

Once again Rushden is looking forward to its Annual Christmas Lights Switch-On with non-stop entertainment throughout the afternoon. The day's events and line up of festive activities promises to be fun for all the family.

This year the main attraction will be an Arctic Polar Bear with its herder Ursula, dressed in an Inuit style outfit acting as an intermediary between the audience and the Bear, distributing interesting facts and related chat about Polar Bears.

There will also be a mix and mingle reindeer ridden by an elf as well as musical entertainment from a quartet of singers, the Bubble Man, Balloon Modeller and face painters. Doctor Busker accompanied by his Victorian singers will also be in attendance and the fun fair will add to the lively atmosphere.

The highlight for the children will be the arrival at the grotto of Father Christmas and his live reindeer who will be in residence from 1:15pm until 4pm.

The last entry being no later than 3:45pm.

Many charity stalls have already signed up for the event and your support will be greatly appreciated on the day.

The finale, the switching-on of the Christmas lights will be performed by the Mayor, Cllr Cesare Marinaro at 4:30pm.

Rushden Christmas Lights Switch-on is organised by Rushden Town Council.

Genealogy jottings

Hands up anyone who has been researching their family and has ordered a copy of a certificate when they already have it. Yes, it is more common that you might think – mainly because you have not checked your records. The best way to avoid this is to make a note of what you have searched and keep it attached to the relevant family record. Each time that I found a new branch of my family, I started a new notebook for that family name. I now have more notebooks than you can shake a stick at but at least I know what I have researched! Memories are not as accurate as written facts – how many times have you gone from one room to another and forgotten what you have gone in for? The same with ancestors, as you might not be able to find a specific piece of your family's history. It could be that you cannot find where or when your 3 x great grandfather was born. You delve into the online baptisms to see if that offers up a clue and you also find when and where his parents were born. Chances are, you have already done this at some point in the past and that is how duplicate certificates get ordered. A written note that this research has already been undertaken would help prevent this.

Mind you, memories can be strange beasts and are a store of weird and wonderful facts, although not necessarily the mundane. Whilst you are searching (again) through the parish register for the baptism of the 3 x great grandfather mentioned above, you stumble across one for Happy Christmas – a baby girl born in the same village about the same time. Whilst chuckling at this discovery, you realise that you had seen it before and so that means that you have already followed this route.

Editor's notes

Our spotlight in this issue is on Christmas, with businesses and communities now busy preparing to host a range of special activities in the coming weeks.

Thanks to one initiative, there are a number of knitted angels for you to find this advent around the churches of Rushden and Higham Ferrers. While the good news has been reported that Bosworth's Garden Centre last year raised thousands for Cransley Hospice, thanks to their singing reindeer attraction – which will be back to entertain customers this year. See page 7 for more on these stories.

As towns and villages in the area dig out the decorations, we report on wider improvements being planned for Wellingborough's public realm, with funding secured through the Townscape Heritage Project. Read more about the plans on page 3.

Work on the repairs to Oundle North Bridge were due to start this week. In a letter to local MP Tom Pursglove at the end of October, the County Council stated that the work would last for 30 weeks. They said: 'The work will consist of vegetation clearance, strengthening (working beneath the bridge), removal of the weight restriction and changing signage, resurfacing (from the A605 roundabout to the zebra crossing) and the implementation of a restriction on the South Bridge.'

The last point is understood to mean that the signage will be changed to reinstate the former lower weight limit. They stressed that most of the work will not affect road users and that although the Southern footway will be closed, pedestrian access will be available via the other side of the bridge.

Daytime closures will be necessary in the first few weeks to allow the clearance of vegetation and these will be notified as required. Also, towards the end of the works, some full 24-hour closures will be needed to facilitate the removal of bollards and resurfacing, and again these will be advised nearer the time.

Some Higham Ferrers residents will get two votes on 12th December. By-elections for the Chichele and Lancaster wards will also be held on the day of the General Election. Voters will get a white paper for the General Election and a yellow paper for the by-election.

The successful candidates will sit on East Northamptonshire Council and will be in post until the new North Northamptonshire Council is formed on 1st April 2021.

For full details of who is standing in the by-elections and your local polling station, go to www.east-northamptonshire.gov.uk/elections

Improvements to Wellingborough's public realm

Work will soon start to carry out a number of improvements to the public areas across Wellingborough town centre as part of the Borough Council of Wellingborough's public realm strategy.

A review of Wellingborough town centre was carried out in 2018 and identified potential areas which could be enhanced to create a well-connected green town centre.

The council has secured funding through the Townscape Heritage Initiative (THI) scheme and invested capital towards carrying out improvements to the public realm, which will help fund the first phase of the project.

The hard landscaped areas, footpaths and planters outside the Tithe Barn Hall, Wellingborough which connect this area to the town centre will be enhanced and developed as part of the first phase. The works will also include the redecoration of three light columns and are anticipated to be completed at the end of November.

There are various improvements to the parks within Wellingborough that have been planned, including replacement of play equipment, street furniture and repairs to fences. Some works have started on the safety play surfaces which are due to be replaced at Newcomen Road and Redwell leisure centre play areas in November and essential repairs and upgrades on play areas at Redhill Grange and Eastfield Park will take place in 2020.

Leader of the Borough Council of Wellingborough, Cllr Martin Griffiths, said: "One of our core priorities is to improve the town centre through a number of public realm initiatives. The first phase will deliver relatively low cost projects ahead of some really exciting improvements which the council is reviewing and will be announced early next year."

Wildlife News

A few animals are so well known that we might expect everybody to know them without being taught – for example, the hedgehog, or the robin, or even the buttercup. But the largest throughout the country is probably the swan. Is there anyone who cannot recognise this graceful and stately white bird which turns up on almost any water surface, and along the Nene Valley there are plenty of good spots for eating and resting (and, in the spring, building one of their massive mounds of dead reed stems which passes as a nest). In other words, this area is attractive to these flying visitors from Europe.

But if you want to get your facts right all is not straightforward. Not every large white bird on lakes and rivers is a "swan"; the ones we usually see are known as 'mute' swans, but there are two other species, 'whooper' and 'Bewick's' which occasionally appear at this time of year, only showing themselves in our country during winter (yes, they see our winters as a place for a holiday, and go back to northern Europe the following spring). All three kinds are vegetarians, and the two visitors will find food with us if cold weather makes feeding difficult in their homeland; our river valley is a traditional route for winter migrants, and the string of lakes emphasises their attraction.

The similarity between the three poses problems if anyone wants to know which they see; the easy way out is simply to say "Look, a swan!" and let someone else work it out. The Bewick's swan is smaller than the other two, though on the far side of a local lake it is difficult to judge the size. The bird's bill helps: the mute swan has a mainly orange bill with a black knob on it, while the other two both show yellow and black. The bird that you see when you are out walking will almost certainly be the mute swan (though not completely silent!) but the other two remind us that our valley is a home to a wide range of creatures – if we look after it.

Osborne's Celebrates its 65th Christmas

A long established and popular family run shop in Rushden, Osborne's Toys is celebrating its 65th Christmas this year.

Jim Osborne purchased the gift shop at 118 High Street Rushden in May 1955, quickly expanding the premises on either side of the original shop. Osborne's is now in its third generation and is very much a traditional, old fashioned toy shop, still run by Mrs Pamela Osborne and son William. It has taken pride of place along Rushden High Street for over 60 years, boasting a wide range of traditional toys and expert advice.

It was even the first shop in the UK to sign up as a stockist of Lego, the most popular toy for generations.

As a specialist toy and model shop, and a proud member of Toymaster, Osborne's aims to give a friendly and professional service to all customers.

And as an independent, they are big on traditional toys.

"Every day of the week someone will come into the shop and say 'We've never been in a toy shop like this for years. There isn't one where we live.' And they've come from quite a few towns away. People come from all over including Wellingborough, Kettering, Northampton, Milton Keynes because they haven't got a shop like this one."

Visit Osborne's for all your Christmas toy needs: 116-118A High Street, Rushden, Northants NN10 0PE. Call the shop on 01933 312415 or visit the website www.osbornes-rushden.co.uk/

From the Chairman...

Myself and my consort, Cllr Sylvia Hughes, were delighted to attend a service at All Saints Church in Northampton to celebrate St Crispin's Day. St Crispin is the patron saint of carriers, cobblers, tanners and leather makers so it was especially appropriate to remember him, as the University of Northampton – and Northampton in general – has a special and internationally known connection with the leather industry.

The Plaza in Thrapston was a great venue for a concert by 'Boobs and Brass' - a group which was formed in 2006 when two friends got together to form an all ladies brass band. Now it has about 40 members who come together to play and donate all their proceeds to charity, especially the Breast Cancer Campaign.

There was a packed audience to hear a wide range of music, some had a more serious side reflecting the forthcoming Remembrance Day, whilst there was a lighter tone to finish, with an arrangement of familiar tunes from Queen.

St John's Church in Chelveston is well known for its beautiful snowdrops in the spring, however the path to the church was not suitable for anyone who had walking difficulties, so I was pleased to present when the new path was opened and dedicated by Reverend Michelle.

We get invited to various civic occasions and had the pleasure of going to the Mayor of Stamford Council's Civic Dinner at Burghley Park Golf Club.

The following week we attended the Mayor of Northampton's Gala Night at the Marriott Hotel, again held in aid of the Mayor's Charity. These events are not only a chance to meet with other members of the 'chain gang' (those who wear chains of office) but also raise funds for the charities especially chosen by the mayors.

Chair of ENC, Dudley Hughes

Oundle shoppers get a sure-footed boost

Customers of award-winning footwear store North Shoes will have an extra spring in their step with the launch of a special clinic at the family firm's Oundle shop.

The NC Foot Health Clinic will be launched on Saturday 7th December, when Oundle marks the start of its festive season with its Christmas market and lights switch-on.

It will be run by 30-year-old Ryan Clements, a qualified foot health practitioner, and will open on Thursdays and Fridays between 9am and 5pm.

Ryan, who is manager of the North Shoes store at Bourne, qualified through the Maidenhead-based SMAE Institute. He holds a diploma in advanced bio-mechanics with the College of Foot Health Practitioners and is also a member of the Society of Shoe Fitters.

The clinic will help people with all sorts of nail problems, plus corns, verrucas and hard skin and, using the latest 3D scanning technology, can also address foot pain and walking problems by supplying bespoke footwear inserts. It can also speed up referrals to specialists like physiotherapists.

Ryan said: "The launch of the clinic at Oundle means we will be an all-round one-stop shop for customers, with our staff as qualified shoe fitters and the clinic there to address foot health and walking problems."

All treatments cost £30, a bio-mechanic 3D scan is £65 and bespoke footwear insoles can be prepared, if needed.

To make an appointment for the clinic, pop into the shop, call on 01832 272534 or book via Facebook at NC Foothealth Clinic.

Appointments are now being taken ahead of the 7th December opening.

Ryan, himself a keen runner with five marathons under his belt, also offers the clinic service to sports clubs and fitness groups, with North Shoes recently adding ASICS running shoes to their extensive stock.

He added: "The clinic is an extension of the clinic we run at Bourne, which is proving extremely popular."

North Shoes, who have won a string of honours through the annual Footwear Industry Awards, took over the former Cottons of Oundle store at 7 Market Place in 2017. They also have stores in Stamford, Bourne, Lincoln and Cambridge.

James North, the fifth generation at the head of the Bourne-based family firm, said: "Good foot health is so important to so many elements of our everyday well-being and our clinic will be a vital part of an unrivalled service to our customers."

Find an angel this Advent

This year during Advent, the churches of Rushden and Higham Ferrers have got a gift for you, but first you have to find them.

Beautifully hand-knitted angels that are yours to take home and keep will be hiding all around your local area. So get ready because between the 1st and 24th December hundreds of these angels will be waiting for you to find them.

The organisers would love to hear where you found your angels on their Facebook page: Rushden GLOW Angels and don't forget to like and share the page so that all of your friends and family can find one too.

Singing reindeer help to raise thousands for Cransley Hospice

The singing reindeer first arrived for the 2018 season at Bosworth's Garden Centre and were a huge hit with young and old alike.

The animated reindeer, which will be back again this year, come to life at the push of a button with their rendition of jokes and Christmas songs. The Centre's collection buckets raised a generous £3,000 from customers visiting over the Christmas period last year.

Bosworth's owner, Sam Bosworth said: "We chose to support Cransley as it is a charity very personal to me and where my dad was looked after. Many of the staff here have also had first hand experience of the great work that is done at Cransley."

Cransley Hospice is located in Kettering and provides care for people with life limiting illnesses.

Bosworth's Garden Centre will be raising funds for the Hospice again this year and have a Just Giving page where you can donate: <https://www.justgiving.com/fundraising/Bosworthsgc>.

MY FAMILY HAS ALWAYS SUPPORTED MY DECISIONS. NOW THEY CAN MAKE THEM IF I CAN'T.

If you lose the ability to make your own choices, a Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA) allows someone you trust to carry out your wishes on your behalf when needed. Don't leave it to chance.

East Northants Snooker League

Week 3 of the ENSL snooker league, sponsored by Belgian Pete's Home Improvements and Windmill B maintained their unbeaten start to the campaign after entertaining last year's champions Cue Sports A in a game that ended 3-3. Mick Tartagliani got the visitors off to a perfect start, compiling a break of 37 to comfortably win the opening frame before he surprisingly totally missed the deciding black ball in the second frame, handing the frame to a relieved Tony Jupp. Mark Douglas potted consistently for the home side to put them in front before Steve Biggs managed to level matters. Justin Gaggini beat veteran Alan Jupp on the pink in their opener before Jupp countered with an improved performance to level the game.

Higham SAS were at home to Windmill C. Adam Burns faced Stewart Brown which promised to be a great match. Adam played brilliantly throughout with some heavy scoring. He even managed to compile a new highest break of 59 in their second frame. Pete Beerten was up next against James Rawlins, Pete taking both of his frames. In the concluding frames, Mike Wilson and Marc Brett took a frame each with Marc knocking in a quick-fire 32 break in the final frame. A great 5-1 result for the home side.

Cue Sports D hosted Cue Sports B, both teams looking for their first win of the season. Unfortunately for Justin White of the D team, he extended his losing streak as Lee Bunker potted well to win the opening two frames. Looking to recover some ground, Ricky Johnson played Richard Symons. They had a very close match but Richard prevailed as the overall winner, taking both frames. Cue Sports B were certainly on a roll. They subsequently took frame five as well, courtesy of Martyn Hatton. But Alvin Thomas did well to snatch frame six as a small consolation for the home team. Final result, Cue Sports B 5-1 Cue Sports D.

The Warriors welcomed Cue Sports C to the Windmill Rushden Club. Michael Dicks of the Warriors is having a tough time, having lost six frames in a row this season, as John Sharp won frame one and two. Luke Clinton stepped up for Cue Sports C to play Richard Wright. Luke won frame three on the colours to make it three in a row for them. However, Richard drew on his experience to win frame four. This proved to be the turning point as Craig Savage won frame five and frame six against Ryan Ball. A 3-3 draw for the home team.

Newly formed Windmill A played against Windmill D. Dan Godson of Windmill A played against his friend and practice partner Neal Vaughan, winning both of his frames. Teammate Dan Brown then played Kevin Freeman hoping to follow suit. However, he ran into Freeman who deservedly won both of those frames. Chris Goldsworthy capitalised on all of Sean Britchford's mistakes, winning frames five and six. Result: 4-2 to the home team Windmill A, still in the top spot.
