NEWS IN BRIEF

Oundle Festival of Music and Drama cancellation

Gwen Radcliffe, Festival Chairman, has contacted Nene Valley News with this update: "The Festival Committee has regretfully decided that the Festival must be cancelled. We hope that the 102nd Festival will take place in April 2021.

"Thank you to all who have helped in any way with the preparations this year. We hope to organise an event in early autumn for the Young Musician qualifying classes and the Young Singer competitors."

Death of a serving officer

A Northamptonshire Police spokeswoman has said: "We are very sad to confirm the death of one of our serving officers, Sergeant Paul Keany, who died while on duty on the evening of Wednesday 11th March.

"Our thoughts are with his family and friends at this devastating time and we would kindly ask the media to respect their privacy while they try to come to terms with his death.

"Sergeant Keany was an extremely popular officer and will be sadly missed by all who knew him."

Getting the right valuation

Selling a house requires a balance between achieving the best price and selling quickly. With new websites like GetAgent ranking estate agents on how quickly they sell and how accurately they price, speed and valuation become key decisions.

Before inviting an estate agency to value your property, use a little due diligence. Take off your rose-tinted glasses and cast a critical eye over your property. Research sale prices achieved in your area, be realistic and then come up with two prices:

1. The top price you think you can realistically achieve.
2. The lowest price at which you would sell.

Then, and only then, invite estate agents to value your property.

Flattery is lovely, but if a valuation comes in much higher than you could have hoped for, it is probably a false promise. Instead, choose the agency most aligned with your price range.

At Bletsoes, we don't only pride ourselves on our accurate pricing, we have a proven track record.

WILDLIFE NEWS

The days are now as long as the nights as we approach the 'spring equinox'. This is the mating season, when every species is forming new family groups, improving its chances of survival. If any should fail in their intention, especially if it happens year after year, that species could be doomed.

Drastic failures like that take huge bites out of the environment, ruining the hard work of many helpers (very often unpaid volunteers) trying to save a dying animal or plant. If the results are unsuccessful most of us will not hear about what went wrong, but when conditions are right we can all see the newcomers as numbers grow.

In our own district it is becoming increasingly possible to see species which, even within living memory, have started to make our 'fields and meadows' (and the river) their home again.

For example, half a century ago the red kite's lovely plumage was disappearing from the British countryside, but a project was started to provide the right conditions for a bird which centuries ago was a common street species. Success in breeding and protection brought the hoped-for growth in numbers, and the species spread out from wilder areas such as mid-Wales back to lowland counties like ours, where the life habits, with constant circling looking for food, provides the opportunity for a closer approach, to appreciate the magnificent colours brought to the scene.

Mammals, too, have had success shown by the increasing number of reports about growing numbers of otters along the river valley; this creature has not been very common in the past, but it is one of the carnivores keeping the natural system in balance. Unfortunately it also starts arguments about what is important, but each of us needs to help both plants and animals to keep numbers high enough to stay a living part of the country scene. As one old saying goes, "use it or lose it".

GENEALOGY JOTTINGS

WORDS BY JAN PEARSON

I am involved in genealogy one way or another every day, but not everyone is. It may be that you make great strides in your research, going back several generations, but then hit a brick wall. Or maybe you are suffering from information overload, as mentioned a couple of weeks ago. Those ancestors were not exactly imaginative with the names that they used as I mentioned before when alluding to naming patterns, and with information overload it is very easy to start to make mistakes.

You have Mary Brown, who died in 1823... and 1831...

and 1842. Which one is yours? You may even have three Mary Browns in your family and so could possibly claim all of them. But which date would fit which Mary? If your brain starts going round in circles, then leave the problem alone. Make a note of what you need to establish on your "To Do" list, if you have one, but then walk away. A different activity will help, whether it is walking the dog, going shopping or just meeting friends for coffee.

I was talking to a second cousin recently who was saying that she had a photograph of her grandparents with another couple that she didn't know and was trying to work out who they were. Were they friends or relatives? When she described the photograph, I realised that I also had a copy and was able to tell her who the mystery couple were. She had left that line alone for a while, concentrating on another branch, and had only recently gone back to it. She thought that she had worked out who the man was but not the woman. It was only just before Christmas that I had found out who the woman was – and that had been annoying me for years!

EDITOR'S NOTES

It's a pleasure to be able to issue our annual reminder to readers to move clocks forward by one hour to be ready for the change to Summer Time, or Daylight Saving Time, on 29th March.

The pleasure comes from a change which enables us to have lighter evenings, and hopefully warmer weather, in which to enjoy getting out and about (albeit on solitary pursuits!). It may not be at the top of anyone's list of things to do at present but there is an ongoing debate about whether or not we should continue to change our clocks twice each year.

You may recall that, just a year ago, the European Parliament voted to scrap the twice-yearly custom of changing the clocks, meaning that the century-old practice of Daylight Saving Time would come to an end by 2021. Although the EU's views may no longer be binding for us, it's telling that our own House of Lords' EU committee said last year that Brussels had overstepped its competences with the proposals: "Geographical and other specificities leave member states best-placed to determine whether seasonal time changes remain appropriate within their jurisdiction," the Lords concluded.

The obvious focus of attention nationally and locally is the coronavirus outbreak and, at a personal level, the risk of becoming infected. There is plenty of advice from Government and in the media about what individuals should do to remain virus-free and the situation is moving sufficiently quickly for any advice we might publish to be swiftly overtaken by further reviews.

Beyond considerations of our own health, there is a great deal of concern about the state of the economy, with manufacturing industries having difficulties sourcing materials and latterly having to consider closing plants to protect their workforce; just about every sector of the travel industry is also impacted as countries close borders.

Similarly, smaller businesses which rely on their customers coming through their doors will struggle if a large proportion of the community follows Government advice to stay away from social gatherings and work from home.

All this, of course, has the potential to leave many employees without an income; at the time of writing it's anticipated that the Government will unveil more financial plans to help the economy during the outbreak, and it remains to be seen what more they can do. Those of us fortunate enough to have gardens should be able to continue to take some exercise by tending them while staying within the "reduced social contact" guidelines.

Now, how much does the local newsagent charge to deliver the daily paper?

BIG BOOK GIVEAWAY

As part of the UK's largest annual celebration of reading for pleasure, Bozeat Primary School and Nursery has been nominated to receive a number of books from the World of Books Group as part of their Big Book Giveaway project.

Thousands of books will be delivered to up to 200 nominated schools throughout the UK, as part of various initiatives to donate 1 million books to good causes by the end of 2020.

Bozeat Primary School will be using the books it has received to encourage children to Share the Love of Reading. Each child will be able to choose a book to take home to keep.

In addition, on World Book Day pupils were encouraged to take part in class based book swapping activities using the books received from the World of Books as a starting point.

Moving forward the school will be adding some of the books to the school library and creating a book borrowing and sharing shelf, to enable children to share their favourite stories with others.

OWNER FINED FOR FILTHY CATERING BUSINESS WITH NO HOT WATER

The owner of a Wellingborough catering business has been prosecuted after the Borough Council of Wellingborough's Environmental Health officers discovered the premises had no hot water and filthy conditions.

Mr Rohit Patel, of R Caterers, Mill Road, Wellingborough, pleaded guilty to six food hygiene offences at Northampton Magistrates Court on 16th December 2019. However, due to the seriousness of the offences the Probation Service were asked to provide a report to the Magistrates Court on sentencing.

On Tuesday 10th March at Northampton Crown Court, Mr Patel was issued with a 12-month community order with 150 hours of unpaid work and ordered to pay £1,500 towards costs to the council.

Council officers carried out an inspection on 14th December 2019 at R Caterers, Mill Road, Wellingborough, a catering business which produces hot food for the elderly, and found the premises had no hot water supply to either the kitchen or toilet and to be in a filthy condition throughout. Conditions were so bad officers believed there was an imminent health risk to the public.

The premises was filthy with dripping grease on walls, ingrained dirt on surfaces and food equipment, insufficient work surfaces, posing a significant risk of cross contamination to food.

The risk was so significant and the general conditions so poor that Mr Rohit Patel agreed to voluntarily close the business until such a time that the health risk to the public had been removed. Due to the conditions found at the time of the inspection, however, the owner was prosecuted.

Leader of the Borough Council of Wellingborough, Cllr Martin Griffiths, said: "Officers found appalling conditions when they inspected this catering business. There was no hot water to the premises and the whole place was filthy.

"We work informally with businesses where possible to make sure high standards are maintained. In this case we had visited the business on a number of occasions, but when considerable failings are found that significantly risk public health, we won't hesitate to take enforcement action.

"These offences were particularly serious. The public's safety is a key priority and we will do whatever is necessary to make sure people have peace of mind when eating food from a registered food business within the borough."

Officers have now authorised for the premises to re-open following installation of a new hot water boiler, kitchen and toilet refurbishment and additional food preparation surfaces provided. The council is working proactively with Mr Rohit Patel to improve his businesses Food Hygiene Rating Score.

Windmill Primary receives site safety tips

Pupils from Key Stage One at Windmill Primary School, Raunds received an assembly from industry experts recently – all about how to stay safe around construction sites.

Steve Cockram of ASHE Construction and James Tennant from East Northamptonshire Council, which is delivering Enterprise Centre East Northants at Warth Park, gave their top tips to pupils on the importance of staying safe near a construction site.

Year 2 pupil at Windmill Primary School, Myah, said: "It was fun and interactive learning about building site safety and I am excited about the competition and prizes!"

Year 1 pupil, Rose, added: "I really enjoyed it, the game was fun and it showed us the right and wrong things to wear on a building site."

Steven North, Leader of East Northamptonshire Council, said: "We are delighted to be working in partnership with construction specialists ASHE to deliver the new enterprise centre. Together, we are passionate about providing youngsters with the tools they need to stay safe near any construction sites. I hope that the pupils enjoyed hearing all about our top tips and they can use these skills for many years to come."

Steve Cockram, Contracts Manager at ASHE Construction, added: "Safety is our number one concern. Whilst we try our very best to minimise construction risks both on and off site, there will always be potential risks around a construction site as we temporarily change the environment in a project's location with deliveries of staff and materials to construct the scheme. It's great to be able to get to see the children at an early stage to explain the dangers that exist around a site and how best they can keep themselves safe."

Enterprise Centre, East Northants is due to open this spring and will offer start-up and growing businesses first-rate flexible workspace and business support. East Northamptonshire Council (ENC) which is delivering the project has received £1.69 million funding from the South East Midlands Local Enterprise Partnership (SEMLEP) Local Growth Fund towards Enterprise Centre, East Northants as part of Enterprising East Northants, the council's economic plan for sustainable job creation and business growth.

Your Health – A CONFESSION

WORDS BY CLAIRE SHORT

Time for a confession: osteopaths get pain too! We're not immune to the inconvenience, exhaustion and frustration of pain. One of the things I find hard is lifting things from the ground. Carrying a heavy item is fine, but getting it off the ground sends me into a tizz because I know I'll be in pain later.

I've been asking chronic pain specialist and chartered physiotherapist, Pierre Bonnaud, and hypnotherapist Christian Baker, how to approach my problem.

Pierre says I need to start training my brain to remember that part of the movement will NOT hurt me. Since I can bend forwards I started with that. Just as he expected, I could bend part of the way, then at a certain point my body resisted as my brain shouted: "Go any further, Claire, and it might hurt!"

Pierre explained that this is my body starting to develop a level of anxiety about the movement. I was hesitating, but there was no pain.

For the next few weeks, as soon as I feel that hesitation, Pierre says I have to return to standing and try again. No lifting, just taking my body towards the movement that causes fear and then moving away from it.

Christian the hypnotherapist explained that when fear is present, it creates tension, which increases pain. The pain creates more fear and the cycle continues. It's important to break the cycle.

So that's my homework: to not lift something off the ground! I don't think I'll be carrying the nasty lawnmower in the next week, but let's see!

Have a pain-free week!

Cooking still a major cause of house fires in Northamptonshire

Almost one-sixth of domestic fires attended by Northamptonshire firefighters last year involved cooking as a cause.

In 2018-2019, Northamptonshire Fire and Rescue Service (NFRS) attended 335 fires in people's homes, 51 (just over 15 per cent) of which were linked to cooking.

With many cooking fires affecting the elderly and those who live alone, NFRS is also reminding family members, neighbours and carers to keep a close eye on the cooking safety of those who might be vulnerable.

Each year the Service carries out thousands of Home Safety Checks in which experts visit the homes of elderly, immobile or vulnerable people in Northamptonshire to make sure their properties are not at risk of fire.

This valuable work includes carrying out an assessment of a person's home to check on a variety of safety points, for example, making sure exits are clear, appliances are being used safely and that there are enough working smoke alarms throughout a property.

Darren Carson, Prevention Team Leader at NFRS, said: "Fires can be caused by becoming distracted, leaving pans unattended – perhaps even falling asleep while cooking is on.

"Across the country, cooking is known as one of the leading causes of house fires, so NFRS is keen to remind people how they can best keep safe.

"We are asking people to not only pay attention to their own cooking, but also the cooking safety of other people they know who may be vulnerable in some way. Even popping around to see an elderly neighbour to test their smoke alarms would be a thoughtful thing to do and could potentially save their life in the event of a fire."

Home Safety Checks can be requested via the NFRS website for people over the age of 60 or those who have a physical or mental health need that affects their ability to react or escape in a fire.

For details on how to request one of these for yourself, a friend or family member, please see: <http://www.northantsfire.gov.uk/safety/hsc/>

> 10 TOP TIPS FOR COOKING SAFELY

- Avoid leaving children in the kitchen alone when cooking on the hob. Keep matches and saucepan handles out of their reach to keep them safe.
- Make sure saucepan handles don't stick out – so they don't get knocked off the stove.
- Take care if you're wearing loose clothing – this can easily catch fire.
- Keep tea towels and cloths away from the cooker and hob.
- Double check the cooker is off when you've finished cooking.
- Take care if you need to leave the kitchen while cooking, take pans off the heat or turn them down to avoid risk.

- Keep electrics (leads and appliances) away from water.
- Check toasters are clean and placed away from curtains and kitchen rolls.
- Keep the oven, hob and grill clean and in good working order.

A build-up of fat and grease can ignite a fire.

- Take care when cooking with hot oil – it sets alight easily. Lastly, if a fire breaks out, remember not to tackle the fire yourself – get out, stay out and call 999.

East Northants Council sets out final budget and Council Tax levels

At its last budget meeting on Monday 2nd March, East Northamptonshire Council (ENC) agreed to increase its share of Council Tax for 2020-21, which would add £5 per year to the average household in the district's Council Tax bill. This will fund services in the district, ensure ENC is financially secure for the next year and contribute to the preparation work for the new North Northamptonshire Council which will come into existence on 1st April 2021.

The council takes only around 9p in every pound of the total Council Tax collected, with the rest of the money going to Northamptonshire County Council, Northamptonshire Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner and town and parish councils. Only 9% of what is collected goes to ENC and enables the council to deliver the services it's responsible for, including waste collections and free car parking in council-owned car parks.

Cllr Steven North, Leader of ENC, said: "As a council, we have always been prudent on Council Tax and will go towards the new North Northamptonshire Council with one of the lowest rates in the country.

"Increasing Council Tax, even by a small amount, is not a decision we take lightly, however the financial climate in which local government operates continues to be a challenge and we always have one eye on the future, as well as delivering current projects and working with the community.

"Over the past year, we have continued to deliver economic growth, including developments such as Enterprise Centre East Northants and Rushden Lakes, whilst remaining mindful of residents and local businesses. ENC officers and councillors continue to work closely, supporting the community across the district and most recently our commercial and economic and business rates team have supported businesses at Rushden Lakes affected by recent bad weather.

"With all these factors in mind, we agreed a very small increase, which for a Band D property works out at £5 over the year and equates to 3.48% overall for all households."

For more information about Council Tax in East Northants and your band, please visit www.east-northamptonshire.gov.uk/counciltax

From the CHAIRMAN

WORDS BY COUNCILLOR DUDLEY
HUGHES JP, CHAIR OF EAST
NORTHAMPTONSHIRE COUNCIL

I was delighted that I was able to hold my Civic Service in the beautiful church in Chelveston. The snowdrops held on until the beginning of March as the Guard of Honour of the young people from Irthlingborough Scouts and the Emergency Services Cadets welcomed the guests including the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, the Chairman of the County, and Mayors and Chairs from across the county as they came to St John's Church. The service was led by the Reverend Michelle and Father Paul as well as Bishop John of Brixworth who preached.

The theme was to recognise all the voluntary work done by so many people for our young people across the District. Musicians from Manor School, Raunds played and emphasised that all the young people at the service were there because their teachers and leaders voluntarily organise them in such a wide range of activities.

Representatives were there from uniformed organisations such as the navy cadets as well as sports clubs, churches, youth clubs and the University of Northampton, through its Changemaker programme, and those who do such a tremendous work with young musicians, especially from the Northamptonshire Music and Performing Arts Trust, NMPAT. Many of our youth activities benefit from the work done by the Northamptonshire Association of Youth Clubs, training leaders and running activities for young people.

Those present represented the many volunteers who work for our young people and Bishop John emphasised in his sermon how important this work is to help our young people be the best they can be, as well as the tremendous work done by Service Six which supports troubled young people individually and in groups, including in our local schools.

All these organisations and many others not only provide brilliant activities but also the leaders are there to listen to those young people who have no one else to talk to about issues that are troubling them.

Supporting the leaders are all those volunteers who are vital as governors and trustees enabling the leaders to run the activities.

So as Chair of East Northamptonshire, on behalf of the residents, I trust this service helped to recognise and thank all those who make tremendous efforts to help develop our young people and our prayers were for God's blessing and support for all who do so.

As a final note, it has been a very busy couple of weeks and I also had the great honour of raising the flag for Commonwealth Day at East Northants Council's offices at Thrapston alongside my consort Cllr Sylvia Hughes and Vice-Chairman Cllr Helen Howell.

ALL NEW AT THE TOP FOR RUSHDEN'S RAFA COMMITTEE

Following its AGM at the end of February, Rushden's Royal Air Forces Association (RAFA) has announced that Paul O'Dell and Jim Doran have been duly appointed as President and Vice President respectively.

Paul served in the RAF from 1960-1963 as Senior Air Craftsman with the Ground Signals Unit, joined RAFA in 1990 and was appointed a committee trustee in 2018 before being appointed as President. Jim served as Sergeant from 1970 to 1985 as an electronics engineer, joining RAFA in 2011, and was appointed as a committee trustee in 2014.

Other appointments to the committee include Peter Trafford-Smith as Honourable Secretary. Peter is a Royal Aeronautical Society Affiliate and was an RAF Historical Society Associate.

Branch membership is open to all, not just RAF veterans, and includes an active social calendar. Meetings are held on the third Tuesday of every month at 7.30pm, Rushden Bowls Club.

The Mayor of Wellingborough joins night patrols with Wellingborough Police Specials

On Saturday 22nd February, the Mayor of Wellingborough, Cllr Jo Beirne, joined officers for a patrol of Wellingborough to find out more about the work they do to keep residents safe.

Wellingborough Police Specials, which form part of Northamptonshire Police, carry out regular patrols of parts of the borough where there are high levels of reported anti-social behaviour and public nuisance.

The Mayor of Wellingborough, Cllr Jo Beirne, was part of the Specials in Wellingborough in the 1990s and spent many hours policing special events, working with other specials and regular officers on their day and night shifts. She experienced a variety of different incidents.

As part of a recent visit to the Wellingborough Sea Cadets she began speaking with Philip J Warr, Specials & Volunteers Coordinator at Northamptonshire Police, and wanted to find out more about the great work which the Wellingborough Specials team carries out today in 2020.

Cllr Jo Beirne, Mayor of Wellingborough, said: "It was wonderful to meet the Wellingborough Specials and to see them in action and volunteering in our local community. They work hard and offer valuable support to our regular officers and safety to our residents in the Borough."

PS Scott Desrochers, Wellingborough Town and Rural Neighbourhood Team added: "This was a fantastic opportunity for the Wellingborough Neighbourhood Policing team to showcase the great working relationship we have with our colleagues from the Special Constabulary.

"It was also an opportunity to both discuss and show the Mayor some of the work we have ongoing in Wellingborough.

"In typical fashion, our evening didn't quite go as I had first planned, with a spontaneous incident leading to an arrest and subsequent investigative enquiries.

"However, this was actually a good thing because it allowed the team to show exactly what we're capable of when we work together.

"I would like to thank the Mayor for taking the time to come out on patrol with us and I hope the experience was both insightful and enjoyable."

East Northants Snooker League

The ENSL winter league drew to a conclusion this week and we congratulate Higham SAS on becoming the 2019-20 champions. This is a thoroughly deserved victory as they have topped the table for many weeks. Quite surprisingly, Cue Sports D claimed the runners-up place, much to Cue Sports A's disappointment.

At the Cue Sports club in Wellingborough, the two top teams played their matches side by side, both in contention of becoming league victors. Whilst Higham SAS held a two-point lead going into this final match and looked likely to finish top, Cue Sports A knew a big win against Windmill D could see them leapfrog Higham into first.

Cue Sports A's Colin Hinds stepped up against Windmill's Kev Freeman. Freeman was too good for Hinds and took both opening frames. Not the start that Cue Sports A were hoping for. Over on the other table, Cue Sports D's Ricky Johnson and Higham's Adam Burns shared frames one and two. This gave Higham the edge, but with four frames still to play, the race was very much still on. Meanwhile, back in the Cue Sports A and Windmill D clash, Justin Gaggini was hoping to take some frames against Neal Vaughan. But Vaughan played extremely well and won both frames, to make it 4-0 for the visiting Windmill D team. Based on this score line, Cue Sports A knew their hopes of winning the title had been dashed, but they still needed to win the final two frames to guarantee the consolation prize of becoming this year's runners-up. In the Higham SAS match, Alvin Thomas and Pete Beerten shared the next two frames to make it 2-2 and Higham SAS had done enough to assure them of the champions' trophy. However, Cue Sports D knew that if they could win the last two frames then they might be able to jump into the runner-up position and snatch this away from Cue Sports A. It was really nail-biting stuff going into the conclusive frames in the two Cue Sports matches. Steve Biggs took on Windmill D's Sean Britchford and on the other table, Aaron Whittemore played Mike Wilson. In a massive turn up for the books, Steve Biggs lost both frames to an in-form Sean Britchford and Aaron Whittemore won both of his frames against an understandably relaxed Mike Wilson. This meant that Cue Sports A would finish third and Cue Sports A would now finish second!

Over at the Windmill Club in Rushden, Windmill A took on Windmill Warriors. These teams were playing mainly for pride as these teams are positioned in the bottom half of the table. Dan Godson and Richard Wright had a good fight and won a frame each. Michael Dicks of the Warriors cleared up with a fine 32 break to win frame three. David Whitmill responded well to win frame four to make it 2-2. Chris Goldsworthy struggled to find his normal form against Paul Lewis. Lewis prevailed as the winner of both frames to make it a 4-2 away win for the Warriors.

Windmill C hosted Cue Sports B this week. Marc Brett lost out to Steve Williams in frame one, but came back strong in frame two with a 45 break to win that one. From then on it was one-way traffic for Windmill C. Stewart Brown won both of his frames against Lee Bunker, albeit extremely close. James Rawlins managed to edge past Martyn Hatton, just, to make it a 5-1 victory.

Despite a 4-2 victory over Windmill B, Cue Sports C still couldn't avoid the wooden spoon position in the league table following the final game of the season. Jon Sharpe got them off to a flyer by destroying any chance that home skipper Tony Jupp had of finishing top of the averages courtesy of an easy two-frame victory that included a break of 41. Ryan Ball and Roy Barlow then shared the next two closely fought frames. Alan Jupp then had an emphatic victory over Luke Clinton in their first frame before Clinton hit back impressively in winning the second comfortably.

After his fantastic performance throughout the whole season, Adam Burns deservedly scooped the top spot on the player statistics leaderboard, sponsored by Semilong Services Ltd, with his impressive 68% win-rate. Marc Brett won the high break prize this year with his contribution of 88, with many other high breaks in his tally.

> THIS WEEK'S RESULTS:

Windmill B 2-4 Cue Sports C
Cue Sports A 0-6 Windmill D
Cue Sports D 4-2 Higham SAS
Windmill C 5-1 Cue Sports B
Windmill A 2-4 Windmill Warriors
