NEWS IN BRIEF

Final consultation on the Cottingham Neighbourhood Plan
Local residents will have their final chance to comment on the Cottingham Neighbourhood Plan, which has been prepared by Cottingham Parish Council with the help of the community and submitted to North Northamptonshire Council for publication.

Consultation on the Plan has now started and closes at 5pm on Friday 8th October 2021.

The Plan sets out detailed local planning policies to help shape and guide development within the designated neighbourhood plan area for Cottingham, which covers the whole of Cottingham Parish.

All comments received will be sent on to an independent Planning Inspector who will assess whether the plan has been prepared in accordance with the relevant regulations.

The Neighbourhood Plan, supporting documents and details of how to respond, are available to view on the Council's website www.corby.gov.uk/home/planning-and-building-control/planning-policy/neighbourhood-planning. Hard copies are also available to view at Corby Library, The Corby Cube, Parkland Gateway, George Street, Corby NN17 1QG during normal opening times.

It's time to apply for school places in Reception, Year 3 and Year 7

Parents and carers can now apply for Reception places in Primary and Infant schools, Year 3 places in Junior schools and Year 7 places in Secondary schools for September 2022.

Parents and carers can apply for places in Reception if their children will be four years of age on or before 31st August.

The deadline for applications for places in Reception is Saturday 15th January at 5pm.

The deadline for applications for places in Year 3 in Junior Schools is also Saturday 15th January at 5pm.

Year 7 places in Secondary schools – Parents and carers of children born between 1st September 2010 and 31st August 2011 can now apply for a Year 7 place for September.

The deadline for Year 7 applications is Sunday 31st October 2021 at 5pm.

All applications, whether postal or online, must be received by the deadline to be considered on time. Late applications will not be processed until after National Offer Day.

For people living in North Northamptonshire – applications may be made online at www.northnorthants.gov.uk/admissions. For those living in West Northamptonshire – applications may be made online at www.westnorthants.gov.uk/admissions

All on time applicants will receive an offer of a school place on the appropriate National Offer Day:

- Tuesday 1st March 2022 for Secondary places and
- Tuesday 19th April 2022 for Reception and Year 3 places.

Cllr Scott Edwards, North Northamptonshire Executive Member for Children, Families, Education and Skills said: "I would encourage parents who are applying for a school place for September 2022 to submit their applications in good time and before the deadline.

"The School Admissions system gives families the opportunity to tell us which schools they would prefer to send their children to.

"While most people are successful at getting a place at their preferred school, there are steps that parents can take to maximise their chances. Submitting an application form on time is the most crucial step, followed by nominating a second and third preference school and including your closest school as one of your preferences."

To find out more about applying for a school place in the North Northamptonshire Council area, and to submit an application, visit www.northnorthants.gov.uk/admissions.

West Northamptonshire Cabinet Member for Children's Services, Councillor Fiona Baker, said: "I would encourage families who are applying for a school place for September 2022 to utilise the support and advice available on our website, and make their applications in good time to avoid a delay in the process and any disappointment."

To find out more about applying for a school place in West Northamptonshire and to submit an application, visit www.westnorthants.gov.uk/admissions

An independent school admission appeals process is available for families who wish to appeal against refusal of a place at any school for which they have applied.

WORDS BY ROY BURRELL

At last – summer is over! For some that simply may come as a relief, while others may not be as happy; in most cases that will depend on where and when some of the more extreme ‘blocks’ of weather (like gales or floods) turned up.

The current scene through the window is bright and sunny, with forecasts for the coming few days promising sun and high temperatures, but by the time this appears it will almost certainly have cooled down and the rain needed by some crops could be with us (even if late), making harvesting harder. It is certainly not possible to please everyone, plant or animal, despite continuing efforts to improve results.

But the ‘in’ phrase on many people’s lips at present is, of course, “climate change”. We have done pretty well in this area, probably because the river Nene and its tributaries are rather broad and flat over much of their length, giving streams room to spread out before the water becomes too deep. Experts cannot decide among themselves whether the results need drastic action, but they do agree that changes are necessary everywhere, including our own little part of the picture. It is a battle between man and nature, and nature is a formidable opponent.

Records are only part of the story, but rainfall, wind strengths and temperatures measurements, and other less common variables, leave us in no doubt that if changes continue at present levels there will be more serious consequences for us humans.

Massive migration of birds and insects could happen earlier or later. Insects such as moths, still lively during night hours, could find food harder to discover, or small mammals like wood mice may have to work harder for their supper (though there could be reasons such as an increase in free-roaming cats), and breeding patterns might be altered.

The international drive on climate change will be headlined later this year with experts coming here to our country looking for answers. Ultimately, though, we consumers hold the key by how we handle the planet’s resources in our fields, nature reserves and our own gardens.

GENEALOGY JOTTINGS

WORDS BY JAN PEARSON

Last time, I made a passing reference to my Irish grandfather, about whom I have very little information. He was born in 1893, 1894 or 1895 – depending upon which record you are looking at. However, his birthday (6th February) does not change. I sent off for his WW2 records in the vain hope that there would be clues. Apparently, he was in the Connaught Rangers in WW1 – but they have no trace of him and I am wondering if the tales of him changing his name when he came to England from Ireland were in fact true.

I am a great believer in documented records. If I cannot substantiate something, I treat it with suspicion, which is why I always double check. There are many, many trees on Ancestry and the like whose members have seen a name and just copied it blindly. No matter that there is a child who died before they were born or that the parents were over 100 years old when they married.

But, back to my Irish grandfather. As I could not find him by following a paper trail, I bit the bullet and did a DNA test. The results came back a few weeks later, confirming all that I had discovered through other means. But was there an Irish connection? The % was correct thereabouts (27%), but no direct connection to anyone on Ancestry.

However, a couple of days later, I received a message from someone named Beth, who apparently was the granddaughter of my Grandma’s older sister – older by 19 years. Once we had messaged each other a few times – and I still had no clue who she was – she sent me a photo... and the light bulb came on! We last met over 50 years ago when she gave me her school satchel as I was moving to a new school.

Although I am still no further along with my Irish grandfather, I have at least discovered a long-lost cousin! Have you tested your DNA to find ancestors?

COUNCIL PLEDGES SUPPORT FOR AFGHAN REFUGEES

North Northamptonshire Council has announced that it has made a firm commitment to support a minimum of 10 Afghan families to resettle in the North Northamptonshire area.

The council will provide the associated support and work closely with partner agencies to help achieve this commitment.

The council has also made a commitment that following the resettlement of 10 families, it will continue to identify opportunities to extend its pledge, exploring how the council can support a greater number of families.

Councillor Jason Smithers, Leader of North

Northamptonshire Council said: “I have said before that I believe we owe a debt of gratitude to the refugees from Afghanistan, many of whom have put their lives in danger to help us.

“The Council has been working hard to establish how it can best respond to the emergency facing those who have been forced to flee Afghanistan with little more than the clothes that they wear.

“I am pleased to announce the council’s firm commitment to support a minimum of 10 Afghan families to resettle in North Northamptonshire and to continue to explore how the council can support a greater number of families resettle in the future.”

Anyone who wishes to offer help to Afghan refugees with settling in the UK can make a financial donation or offer other aid by visiting the North Northamptonshire Council website. People and organisations can complete an online form indicating what support they could provide, with the council then getting in touch when any arrangements are confirmed.

Anyone who wants to register an interest of help and support can do so on the council website. Visit www.northnorthants.gov.uk/afghan

Local charity launches social enterprise fund

8 DECENT WORK AND ECONOMIC GROWTH

Northamptonshire Community Foundation has launched a new fund to support social enterprise initiatives that will help with the economic recovery from the pandemic.

Social enterprises based in the county can apply for up to £5,000 to help support decent work and economic growth within local communities.

The activities must benefit local residents, especially those that may be disadvantaged and vulnerable.

Groups can apply via www.ncf.uk.com with a closing date for applications of Friday 15th October.

Rachel McGrath, Deputy CEO and Grants Director of Northamptonshire Community Foundation said: "We have seen how the pandemic has massively impacted the economic and financial wellbeing of our local communities and so we are delighted to be able to launch a funding programme that will go some way to help support and contribute to local economic wellbeing and give a boost to new and existing social enterprise activity locally."

Public consultation starts for North Northamptonshire Council's first corporate plan

Residents, businesses and local groups are invited to have their say on North Northamptonshire Council's proposed plan for the next four years.

The Council is consulting on a high-level plan that sets out the Council's vision, values, key commitments and priorities for the area and for the people who live and work in and visit North Northamptonshire.

Clr Jason Smithers, Leader of North Northamptonshire Council, said: "I want people living and working in North Northamptonshire to have the opportunity to shape their local area and the public services they receive.

"This consultation will be open for four weeks but we want to continue to have a dialogue with local communities long after this consultation closes.

"If you have time and are keen to get more involved in shaping the future of your local area, please take part in this survey. Everybody in North Northamptonshire is welcome to have their say."

The survey is available online at <https://northnorthants.citizenspace.com/> and as a paper version from council customer service centres and North Northamptonshire libraries. The consultation is open now and runs to Midnight 3rd October 2021.

SHOWCASING THE DIFFERENCE NORTHAMPTONSHIRE'S COMMUNITY AND MENTAL HEALTH NHS SERVICES ARE MAKING

Communities across Northamptonshire are invited to join Northamptonshire Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust for its annual showcase, looking back on the difference Trust services are making.

The Annual Public and Member meeting will take place on Monday 20th September from 5.30pm and everyone is welcome to join the online event.

Northamptonshire Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust (NHFT) is the county's provider of community, mental health and learning disabilities services. NHFT colleagues provide a wide range of care, from health visitors and district nurses, to in-patient care and prison healthcare in Northamptonshire and beyond.

The event will take place via Microsoft Teams from 5.30pm, enabling people to join from anywhere. As part of the event, NHFT's clinicians will be leading a wellbeing session, providing practical advice and support on how to look after your physical and mental wellbeing.

Crishni Waring, Chair of NHFT, will host the event alongside Angela Hillery, Chief Executive, and NHFT Governors. The event will showcase what the Trust has been doing over the last financial year, as well as highlighting just some of the ways it has adapted throughout the pandemic.

Crishni Waring, Chair

of NHFT explained: "Our Annual Public and Members' Meeting provides us with a chance to proudly showcase how our staff, volunteers and service users have made a difference over the last year. It's a great opportunity for the community we care for to join us for a practical session led by NHFT clinicians on how we can look after our wellbeing. It is essential that we take the time out to focus on our physical and mental wellbeing, and this will be a real chance to take away some practical skills to adopt into everyday life."

Your Health – My elbow hurts

WORDS BY CLAIRE SHORT

I hope you saw my last article in the digital edition of the Nene Valley News and that you've been looking after your lower back.

Unfortunately, typing the article upset my elbow. The article was probably the final straw as I'd done a lot of lifting and weeding.

The pain is in a specific area of the elbow and is worse when I carry things, tip the kettle or stir something, which is a shame as I'd intended to make chutney this weekend. The complication is that my shoulder and neck are now starting to ache.

So, have I been looking after my injury? Is the physician healing herself?

The answer is 'mostly'!

Since the injury is a repetitive strain injury we know that there will be inflammation in the area, so I have been putting ice on it twice a day (in a damp tea towel so I don't get ice burn).

I've also been getting my favourite osteopath (my husband!) to treat the muscles, tendons, ligaments etc of the elbow and mobilising the joints in the elbow. It's interesting how nice it feels after massage, but how short-lived the effects are. The improvement lasts longer when he treats the joints as well as the muscles and tendons. He's also been treating my shoulder and neck.

I seem to be hitching up the shoulder to protect my elbow. The muscles up into my neck are very tight, the whole area has benefitted from getting them to relax.

So, I'm on the wrong side of the treatment couch this week. An interesting experience and one that has kept me away from the lawnmower, so I'm not complaining.

If you're making chutney this week I hope your elbow survives!

Why not try a Respite Stay in the Quaint Market town of Raund's

Ashfield House is in the pretty town of Raund's, Northamptonshire. A respite stay is a really good way to introduce care to a loved one. We very often find, for an older person, seeing a beginning and end date is a positive start for them.

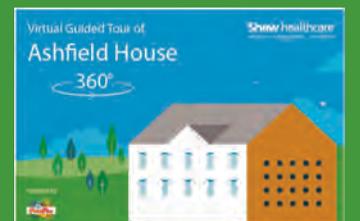

Respite stays can support the person themselves to live longer independently at home, often thinking of them a bit like a holiday. Respite stays can also offer a break for home carers or family, safe in the knowledge that their loved one is being cared for at Ashfield House.

Our care fees are dependent on care requirements so please call or email to discuss on:

Colin Freeman: Between the Devil and the Deep Blue Sea

The mission to rescue the hostages the world forgot.

Thursday 28th October at 8pm, Venue: Zoom webinar, Tickets £6. The true story of a retired British army officer's private Somali-hostage rescue mission.

During the peak of the Somali piracy crisis, three ships - from Malaysia, Thailand and Taiwan - were hijacked and then abandoned to their fate by their employers, who lacked the money to pay ransoms. All would still be there, were it not for Colonel John Steed, a retired British military attaché, who launched his own private mission to free them. He raised the ransom money from scratch and ran the operation from his spare room, ferrying million-dollar ransom payments around in the boot of his car.

Working alongside him was Oundle resident Leslie Edwards, who is one of Britain's most experienced hostage negotiators, having worked on kidnap cases all over the world, including Iraq, Afghanistan and Venezuela. Edwards gave Steed expert help in dealing with the pirates, bargaining their ransom demands down and organising the exchanges of hostages and ransom cash.

Drawing on first-hand interviews, former chief foreign correspondent of The Sunday Telegraph, Colin Freeman, who has himself spent time held hostage by Somali pirates, takes readers on an inside track into the world of hostage negotiation and one man's heroic rescue mission.

This event will feature an exclusive interview with Leslie Edwards by Colin Freeman.

'A raw, gripping and profoundly moving book. Between the Devil and the Deep Blue Sea tells the extraordinary story of Somalia's forgotten hostages, the pirates who tortured them for years, and the quietly heroic Britons who refused to give up on them.' Andrew Harding, author of These Are Not Gentle People.

Colin Freeman is an author and journalist specialising in foreign affairs. He was chief foreign correspondent of The Sunday Telegraph from 2006-2016, covering mainly the Middle East and Africa. Today he contributes to a variety of publications including The Telegraph magazine, the Spectator and From Our Own Correspondent on BBC Radio 4.

COVID-19 VACCINATION PROGRAMME FOR HOUSEBOUND SERVICE USERS AND IN-PATIENTS

Many people in Northamptonshire will be classed as being 'housebound', whether this is due to ill health or age. NHS staff in Northamptonshire have been working to ensure that these service users, and in-patients, have received their Covid-19 vaccination.

From January to July 2021 colleagues from Northamptonshire Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust (NHFT) worked with Northamptonshire Clinical Commissioning Group (NCCG) to visit housebound patients in their homes and administer the vaccine.

NHFT provides a wide range of community and mental health services across the county, including in-patient care at St Mary's and Berrywood Hospitals.

Sharon Allen and Kelly

Coles from NHFT have been supporting the delivery of the household vaccine programme, coordinating the project.

The team commenced the programme in January, starting with a list of names and telephone numbers of NHFT staff from a variety of backgrounds, who were keen to be involved and ensure this cohort received their vaccinations.

In just a few short weeks a team of Community Nurses came together to coordinate and deliver the vaccination programme to housebound patients across Northamptonshire.

Sharon, Pre-Registration Pathway and NMP Lead at NHFT, said: "Everyone stepped up, volunteered and went above and beyond to vaccinate this cohort of vulnerable members of our communities. Some worked throughout their annual leave, others did this in addition to their current jobs, some did this despite being retired but the biggest motivator of all was to work with others and help fight against the pandemic.

"Kelly and I had the pleasure of providing the logistical support, supporting and developing the programme. Working with colleagues across NHFT and NCCG we helped to achieve the national deadline for vaccinating care homes and vaccinated over 3,600 housebound patients over a six-month period.

"Alongside vaccinating housebound patients, in February 2021, we were asked to help vaccinate in-patients across NHFT, by providing a roving team working out of the Vaccination Centre.

"Our team of four provided the vaccine to in-patients across six sites in Northamptonshire, working closely with ward staff to engage, offer and assess patient suitability, determine consent and allow the team a safe area to vaccinate. By working collaboratively with staff from across NHFT in-patient care we were able to administer 220 first doses and 131 second doses in four months.

"By working collaboratively with both NHFT and NCCG staff we have seen the impact of the collective values health and social care staff uphold and shown that we are all in this together."

Now that all housebound patients have received their first and second vaccines and the programme has finished, all staff have returned to their usual roles, continuing to provide outstanding and compassionate care.

The vaccination programme continues to be delivered from sites across Northamptonshire. If you haven't yet received your jab you can either contact your GP practice, call 119 or visit www.nhs.uk/covidvaccine to book an appointment.

Moulton College celebrates 100 years of teaching history with commemorative event

Graduate - Georgina Wallis

Moulton College Senior Leadership Team

Supported Learning Team - Award Winners

Moulton College in Northamptonshire is celebrating its 100-year anniversary, and recently hosted a commemorative event to mark the occasion. Guest speakers included previous alumni, employer partners and Countryfile presenter Adam Henson.

The event, held to celebrate the College's 'past, present and future' included fond memories from previous students dating back to the '50s, and a video timeline displaying the College's history. The event also recognised the hard work of the College staff with long service and achievement awards presented during the main event.

Corrie Harris, CEO and Principal at Moulton College said: "100 years of teaching is a remarkable achievement and it was only right for us to celebrate this major milestone. It has been fantastic to listen to the memories of our alumni and to hear about their many achievements since their time with us."

Moulton College opened its doors in 1921 as the Institute of Agriculture, initially welcoming 26 students to study General Agriculture. Over the years, the College played an influential role training the Women's Land Army, recovered from a WW2 bombing, and welcomed royalty through its doors to mark its 50th birthday. Since its early years, the curriculum has expanded to include Animal Management, Construction, Land-based studies, Sport, Supported

Learning and Uniformed Public Services. Corrie added: "It was great to hear from Adam Henson who highlighted the opportunities in farming and the exciting technologies being developed in this sector. It was a brilliant event acknowledging the College's wonderful history and rewarding our staff for all of their hard work."
